Evening Reception
A public reception will be held between the hours of 7 to 9 at which time every person who cares to do so may visit the home. The officers and committees of the Legion and Legion Auxiliary will be on hand to meet and greet visitors and all will find the place worthy of an inspection visit.

Flood lights have been installed for the purpose of lighting up the home and grounds, which show up the decorations magnificently.
Many men prominent in the affairs of the Legion in State and Nation will be present while invitations have been extended to every Legion and Legionnaires in Clearfield and surrounding counties.
A large crowd is expected to attend the dedication. The students of the Senior and Junior High Schools of both the public and parochial schools have been invited and will march in a body from their schools to the home at the corner of South Second street and Leavy avenue.
The streets have been handsomely decorated while all the streets leading to the square where the exercises will be held will be blocked off from

GIRL, 14, SHOTS SELF AFTER WHIPPING

Wallington, N. J. Oct. 27.—(INS.)—Valentine Suder, 14, shot and killed herself today because her father scolded her for remaining outside her home late last night.

"I hope he's found dead" under a fence some day like a dog," said a note she left, alluding to the father, a tinsmith.

Suder said he reproved the girl for her late hours and then whipped her.

FRANCE RECOGNIZES SOVIET RUSSIA

Paris, October 23. (INS.)—France this afternoon formally recognized the Russian Soviet government. A note to that effect is being sent to Moscow.

D. L. SOMMERVILLE IS SUPERINTENDENT OF PA. DIV., N. Y. C.

The patrons of the Pennsylvania Division of the New York Central Railroad will be interested in learning that several important changes have been made in the directing heads or management of the Division, as a result of a realignment of the division heads of the company, which took place on Saturday last.

As a result of this reassignment Supt. D. L. Sommerville has been advanced from the Mohawk Division to the Superintendency of the Pennsylvania Division. The new Superintendent has been connected with the N. Y. C. for many years and is a finished railroad man and his assignment to the Pennsylvania Division will be welcome news to his many friends in this region.

Mr. Sommerville succeeds Howard Scott, who assumes the Superintendency of the Mohawk Division, with headquarters at Albany, N. Y. Assistant Superintendent W. A. Hanter of Jersey Shore, who like Mr. Scott, is a former Clearfielder, was advanced to the position of Superintendent of the Ontario Division and has his headquarters at Oswego, New York.

The Assistant Superintendent of the Pennsylvania Division has not been chosen as yet.

GENERAL STONE IS "CLEANING UP" LAW ENFORCING BRANCH

Washington, Oct. 27 (INS.)—Six U. S. District Attorneys have resigned and four more have been asked to resign in the last three months, Attorney General Stone revealed today in declaring that there had been a "general clean up" in the Law Enforcement branch of the Government since last July.

The Attorney General would not disclose the identity of the District Attorneys or state the districts affected, but said that "great progress" had been made in despoising of prohibition cases since Mabel Walker Willebrandt, assistant Attorney General wrote her famous letter to the Law Enforcement League of Philadelphia blaming indolent district attorneys for lax prohibition enforcement.

Mrs. Willebrandt's letter has been made the cause of furor recently. She wrote it last July, and in it she stated that if she had her way a considerable number of district attorneys would be "kicked out" for non enforcement of the liquor laws. She also blamed politics, particularly Senators

MORAVIA, N. Y. GIRL BEATS FATHER TO DEATH AS HE LAYS ON COUCH ASLEEP

Moravia, N. Y., Oct. 27 (INS.)—A police guard was placed this afternoon over the ward in which 19-year-old Suzanna Riley, alleged slayer of her father, Charles, Riley, sixty, farmer, is being held for observation. District attorney Benn Kenyon, ordered the girl placed under arrest technically on an open charge. She will be held at the hospital for several days for observation of her mental condition.

Dr. Leslie Snow, Cayuga county jail physician, who examined the girl, said she was suffering from mental disorders.

Moravia, N. Y. Oct. 27 (INS.)—The authorities here were arranging to have doctors make a careful observation of the actions of Miss Suzanna Riley, 19, as a result of her having clubbed her father, Charles Riley, 60, a Moravia farmer, to death.

After refusing to let her take a position in Auburn, Riley retired to a couch. The girl got an iron bar and, while her father slept, beat him with it until he was dead.

Fear Feud Following The Killing Of Three Men In Williamson Gambling

Williamson, W. Va., Oct. 27 (INS.)—State Police were keeping a close watch today along the Mingo Wayne county boarder, near the Kentucky state line to prevent a fresh flare up in a feud which resulted yesterday in the death of three men and the wounding of two others.

Clarence Marcum and Mark Hackey were killed in a fight with State Policemen Struggle and Walls, after Harry Stacey had been slain in a battle in which Marcum and Hackey were participants. Lew Stacey, brother of the slain man is suffering from wounds received in the first fight, which, according to physicians may prove fatal. State Policeman Walls has two bullet wounds in his right arm.

Marcum and the Staceys were engaged in a card game, according to the police when the shooting suddenly began. After Harry and Lew Stacey fell, Marcum and Hackey took to the hills where they were pursued by the officers. The battle followed when the pursued men stood their ground.

Titusville, Pa., Oct. 28 (INS.)—John F. Coleman, 79, civil war veteran and musician is dead here today. Coleman, who is blind, died yesterday while playing a violin at the 25th marriage anniversary of Rev. Samuel Semple here. He served in the 54th regimental band during the civil war, and was organizer of Coleman's brass band and orchestra.

Coleman leaves a wife and five children.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Bridge spent Sunday with friends at Indiana, returning last evening.

and Congressmen, for interference in more strict enforcement where their own appointees were concerned.

"Since that letter was written," Stone said today, "There has been a general clean up. Six district attorneys have already resigned and four more have been asked to resign." He declined to give further details.

LAST OF ROUNDOUT BANDITS IS TAKEN AT BATTLE CREEK

Brent Glasscock and His Wife Found Living In
Luxury, He Suffering
With Stomach Trouble.

ADMITS IDENTITY

Battle Creek, Mich., Oct. 28. (INS.)—Brent Glasscock, alias Brent Howard, and his wife Avis, who have been popular members of the social set at the Battle Creek sanitarium since their arrival here three weeks ago, are held today by federal officials. The man is held as the last of the six principals in the Roundout, Ill., $2,000,000 mail robbery of June 12, and the woman as a conspirator sharing his guilt.

The Glasscocks were arrested last night in the fashionable west end home where they had taken a suite when Glasscock started a course of stomach treatments at the sanitarium on their arrival here. Acting on a tip from post office inspectors, police visited the house, gained entrance through a subterfuge, and confronted the couple in their suite. When shown the postoffice circulars advertising a reward for their arrest, Glasscock and his wife surrendered without resistance and admitted their identity, according to police.

Mrs. Glasscock had a sumptuous wardrobe, appraised by police at $10,000, in the suite. She was wearing at least $25,000 worth of gems, and had in her possession about $4,000 in currency and a sack of unset diamonds as large as both fists. Its value has not been estimated.

Since coming to Battle Creek, the couple had entered into the social affairs of the city, gaining entrance through the coterie at the sanitarium, where foregather social leaders from many cities. They said they lived in Kansas, and that they had returned only recently from a honeymoon in Canada, hunting. Glasscock is about 40 and his wife about 35.

Glasscock has a long criminal record, according to postal inspectors, who arrived here early today to take the prisoners to Chicago. He has been tried twice for murder, but has beaten both charges.

His arrest completes the roundup of suspects in connection with the daring robbery of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul train last June, in which $2,000,000 was taken by the bandits near Roundout, Ill. The other five are in cells in Chicago, in default of $100,000 bail each.

Davis Issues First Of Series Of Daily Talks On His Political Policy

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent.)

New York, Oct. 28.—John W. Davis, the Democratic presidential nominee, issued today the first of a series of daily statements calculated to show the electorate where he stands on national or international issues.

"The American people," the candidate said in explanation, "are entitled to know the policies which I will seek to put into effect if elected President of the United States."

"The supreme issue of this campaign," his statement continued, "is: Shall the attitude of the mind of the national administration be one of liberalism or one of reaction?"

"Shall our national policies be framed with primary regard to the interests of a few or to promote the welfare of all?"

"Shall the American Government

The little five year of daughter of William Russell, a Pole, who lives near Grampian, set fire to her clothing while playing with matches on Saturday last and received such severe burns that death ensued at the Clearfield Hospital a few hours later.

OLD TIME POLITICAL RALLY TOMORROW NIGHT

DEMOCRATS TO MEET
THURSDAY EVENING;
WOMEN MEET ON SAT.

A Democratic rally and about the last political meeting of the campaign will be held in the court room on the evening of Thursday, October 30th. Addresses will be made by John M. Henry, Esq., of Pittsburgh, and other prominent out of town and local Democrats. All voters, both women and men are invited to attend this meeting and hear the real issues of the campaign discussed.

County Chairman Wallace Smith is arranging for a meeting for the women to be held either next Saturday afternoon or evening and hopes to be able to bring Mrs. Edith Allen, a noted woman speaker of Williamsport here to make the principal address.

The uncertainty as to the time of the meeting is due to the fact that Mrs. Allen's time is taken up to such an extent that it is impossible for her to say at this time whether she can come to Clearfield or not. She is scheduled to speak at Johnstown Saturday evening and it is hoped to have her come to Clearfield for the afternoon and make the trip by motor to Johnstown in the evening. Failing in that, some other prominent woman speaker will be secured.

Wild Duck Alone Ties Up Trolley Lines For 2 Hours At Charleroi

Pittsburgh, Oct. 28. (INS.)—The Charleroi interurban cars were delayed more than two hours yesterday afternoon on account of one small wild duck. The duck was travelling south for the winter. It became lost from its companions and seeking a body of water flew low, came in contact with two high tension wires and caused a short circuit. The duck was destroyed.

POLITICAL TEA AT WEST SIDE MONDAY EVENING SOMETHING REAL NEW IN POLITICS

A new era was inaugurated last evening in political meetings. The one-time mass meetings, torch-light parades and ex-roads are obsolete. They have been superseded by political teas. The first "Get out the Vote" tea in the county was launched last evening by Vice Borough chairman, Mrs. W. S. Bouton and her corps of earnest workers. Sixty ladies in the comfortable parlors of the West Side House listened to excellent talks, asked questions, reported what they had already accomplished and planned their work for the rest of the campaign.

Mrs. W. S. Bouton started the ball rolling in an excellent talk on the importance of getting out the vote. Then in a few well-chosen words she introduced County Chairman Edmonds who said: "Our grandfathers fought for independence, our fathers fought to preserve the Union and the fight we have is just as important which is to retain the welfare of the country. His eulogy of President Coolidge was fine. He said that during Mr. Coolidge's first administration he had a Cabinet he did not select and a Congressional majority so small he could not depend upon it to back up his judgment and yet he has gained the confidence of the world. He said if we make a mistake in selecting a president there is no remedy. We shall have to wait for years before we can correct the error.

He spoke of Chas. G. Dawes as a lawyer, a banker and a musician. Those who have listened to his musical compositions over the radio believe he has a soul which will preserve the harmony in our government as he has brought harmony out of discordant notes.

He urged that we elect a strong Republican congress which will be a source of strength to our President. His mention of Hon. W. I. Swoope's record has met the approval of the women and there is no doubt who will get their vote for Congress.

He asked that Charles Jones be returned to the State Legislature.

Mrs. W. I. Swoope gave a most in

Those Believing In Up-
Holding Constitution By
The Election Of Calvin
Coolidge Plan A Meeting

Those who believe that the people of this community are steeped in apathy and indifference to the welfare of their country in respect to taking an interest in the campaign that is upon us will do well to take a few minutes tomorrow evening to attend the political meeting at the Court Room. This meeting is being held by and under the auspices of the Coolidge-Dawes Republican Club of Clearfield and will be an answer to the "furriners" who come in from Wisconsin and a few other parts of the country which all but alienated themselves from being a part of the United States by their activities and inactivities from 1918 down to the present date, to tell us how rotten we are in Pennsylvania and who want us to go back to pre-constitution days and start all over again with Robert LaFollette in the role of Thomas Jefferson. They would also have us link arms with all the "skies" of Russia, the Marx's and others of similar ideas and tear down all that has been built up on the solid rock of the Constitution and erect thereon a house of cards built on political promises which must of necessity crumble when the mad scramble for spoils begins after the election.

This meeting will have for its purpose the awakening of whatever slumbering patriots there are in the community to the real dangers confronting our people today, not the least of which is the necessity of maintaining the true republican form of government today and the strengthening of our government by giving the Chief Executive the support he must have in every branch of government. Many observers declare that to elect Calvin Coolidge or John W. Davis president and then permit LaFollette men to invade the halls of congress would be equally disastrous as these latter would be able to hamstring the president. It would be equally dangerous to elect a congressman of divided allegiance—any of those fellows who accepted the endorsement of the LaFollette crowd in a spirit of anything to win.

The meeting is to open at eight o'clock sharp at the Court Room tomorrow evening. If you are proud of your state and believe we still have a better form of government and a higher standard of public officials than Europe, Mr. Rubin and others notwithstanding, join the throng.

6,964 STUDENTS IN NORMAL SCHOOLS OF PENNSYLVANIA NOW

Harrisburg, Oct. 28. (INS.)—Reports from the 14 State Normal Schools show an enrollment for the fall term of 6,964 students, an increase of 1,114 over last year and the largest attendance in the history of these institutions.

This number does not include any secondary pupils and is an evidence of the greater number of high school graduates who are choosing the teaching profession as their life's work.

The attendance figures for the different schools are as follows:

Bloomburg	800
California	400
Cheyny	78
Clarion	250
East Stroudsburg	550
Edinboro	494
Indiana	950
Kutztown	375
Lock Haven	262
Mansfield	660
Millersville	385
Shippensburg	460
Slippery Rock	450
West Chester	1,180

Philadelphia, Oct. 28. (INS.)—Hurrying to the scene of an automobile accident last night, Policeman William McAllister found his own brother was the victim. At St. Agnes' hospital where he was taken, Michael McAllister, the injured man, was treated for contusions of the head and body and four broken ribs. He is expected to recover.

Miss Annie Wright returned last evening from a two week's visit with friends at Indiana.

ALL RECORDS IN CAR LOADINGS BROKEN WEEK ENDING OCT. 18

Washington, Oct. 28. (INS.)—The prosperous condition of the country's railroads was indicated today by the announcement that more cars were loaded with revenue freight during the week ending Oct. 18, than during any other single week in history.

It was a "million car week," 1,102,536 cars being loaded and dispatched to destinations, exceeding by 4,843 the previous high record established in September, 1923.

"Not only does this figure represent the highest car loading for any single week in the history of American railroads, but the new high record was accomplished without car shortage, congestion or other transportation disability," according to a statement issued by the American Railway Association. "Today there are about 100,000 surplus freight cars in good repair and immediately available for service when needed, while the railroads have approximately 5,400 serviceable locomotives in storage, about twice as many as they had at this time last year.

"Record breaking grain crops have been moved without a single reported car shortage from Western States. The California perishable producers heretofore have been confronted with periodical car shortages, but this year there has been no shortage of refrigerator car equipment."

Lawrence McDonald, A Well Known Pittsburgh Newspaper Man, Dies

Pittsburgh, Pa., Oct. 28. (INS.)—Lawrence S. McDonald, 85, one of the best known newspaper men in Pittsburgh, died of pneumonia at his home here at 11:10 last night.

McDonald was born in Ridgway, Pa., and had worked for Chicago newspapers and for the Pittsburgh Gazette Times and the old Pittsburgh Dispatch. At the time of his death he was employed by the Pittsburgh Press. His book "Poems and Sonnets" was known to hundreds of his friends.

Mrs. Emma McDonald, the widow, and three brothers, M. P., of Clearfield; James H., of Pittsburgh; and Dennis McDonald, of Occola, survive.

The deceased was the youngest son of the late James and Margaret McDonald and was raised in Clearfield. He was a graduate of the Clearfield High School. Possessing exceptional literary talent and considerable poetic ability he took up newspaper work as a profession when he arrived at young manhood. He studied law in the office of the late J. F. Kendrick, Esq., but decided to devote his time to journalism and was never admitted to the bar.

He located in Pittsburgh more than 30 years ago and had since resided in that city, although doing newspaper work in Chicago and other western cities from time to time.

Genial and companionable, Larry McDonald was a man who got lots of joy out of life, and numbered his friends as legion. Possessed of the true poetic temperament he saw nothing but the bright side of every situation. He was a staunch, loyal friend, a man whom it was a pleasure to meet, and his passing will be sincerely mourned by a host of old boyhood friends here in Clearfield.

Chester, Pa., Oct. 28. (INS.)—Carroll Ogden, varsity guard on Swarthmore College football squad, has been brought to the hospital here after several weeks illness brought on by an injury received in the Pennsylvania-Swarthmore game. At first it was believed Ogden had concussion of the brain but now a blood clot is feared. He is a brother of "Curly" Ogden, the pitcher.

Philadelphia, Oct. 28. (INS.)—A slight rain last night ended the second longest drought in the history of the city. Prior to yesterday not a drop of rain had fallen for 18 days. The longest dry spell on record was in November, 1917, when there was no rain for 21 days.

Dr. Hentzky, of Winburne, had business in Clearfield yesterday.

and nothing allowed to disturb ceremonies.

The Home will be closed to all but auxiliary and the different committees in charge from 1 o'clock until the dedication is over. Those expected to attend the reception do not wish to go home will be served by the Ladies from 5 o'clock on to 6:45 p.m. from 7 o'clock to 9 or during reception "punch" light refreshment and smokes will be provided for the visitors or guests.

Prominent Men Coming

In addition to those already listed in program and mentioned previously acceptances have been received by the Committee on Invitation from the following prominent men:—Robert S. Caty, Commanding Department of Pennsylvania Spanish American Legion; James J. Deighan, Department of Pennsylvania American Legion; Capt. C. Fick, S. Army officer detailed for reserve Corps District.

There should be a general compilation of local business men with Burdetteberger's proclamation and business place in the town be closed Wednesday afternoon. The occasion, the purpose and goes on deserves at least that from this community.

Entertaining Youth.—Jag in on the train the other day a little nervous mother and a child. As the train in Boston the mother began to cry everything was all right. You got all the umbrellas. "I should say I had. I had one I started, and now I've got Boston Transcript.

Market News

By W. S. COUSINS
(I. N. S. Financial Editor.)

New York, Oct. 28.—Industrial and railroad stocks displayed more strength and activity today than in any of the last three or four sessions of the stock market. Vigorous buying of the railroad stocks in the first hour, with industrial leaders joining the movement later in the day, lifted many stocks out of the narrow rut in which they have been travelling for a week or more and placed them in the highest price levels for the current movement.

The extremely favorable report on railroad traffic activities throws light also on the recent expansion in domestic business. Activity in steel common was held up awaiting the report on third quarters' earnings and dividend action at 3 o'clock, but independent steel companies were uniformly strong and active throughout the rest of the session with Penn Sea-board advancing to a new high on the movement on a very heavy turnover.

The movement in railroad stocks failed to produce any new records and advances in prices were prevented by the large offerings of stocks at fractionally higher price levels. Traders who had purchased these stocks at slightly lower levels were willing to sell them at the smallest margins of price advances, in many cases less than a point. Thus after a moderate rise in Rock Island, Missouri Pacific, St. Paul preferred, Kansas City Southern and a few other low priced stocks, buying stopped as suddenly as it had begun and prices in many stocks returned to the lower levels.

Oil stocks failed to continue the forward movement which has been in progress for about a week.

American Sugar Refining tumbled to a new low at 36 1/2 for a loss of 2 1/2 points and Cuba Can Sugar preferred lost about one point on selling due to reported over production in Cuban raws and rumors of price cutting in the trade. Sears Roebuck made a new high for the year at 114, at the head of the mercantile stocks which were generally firm.

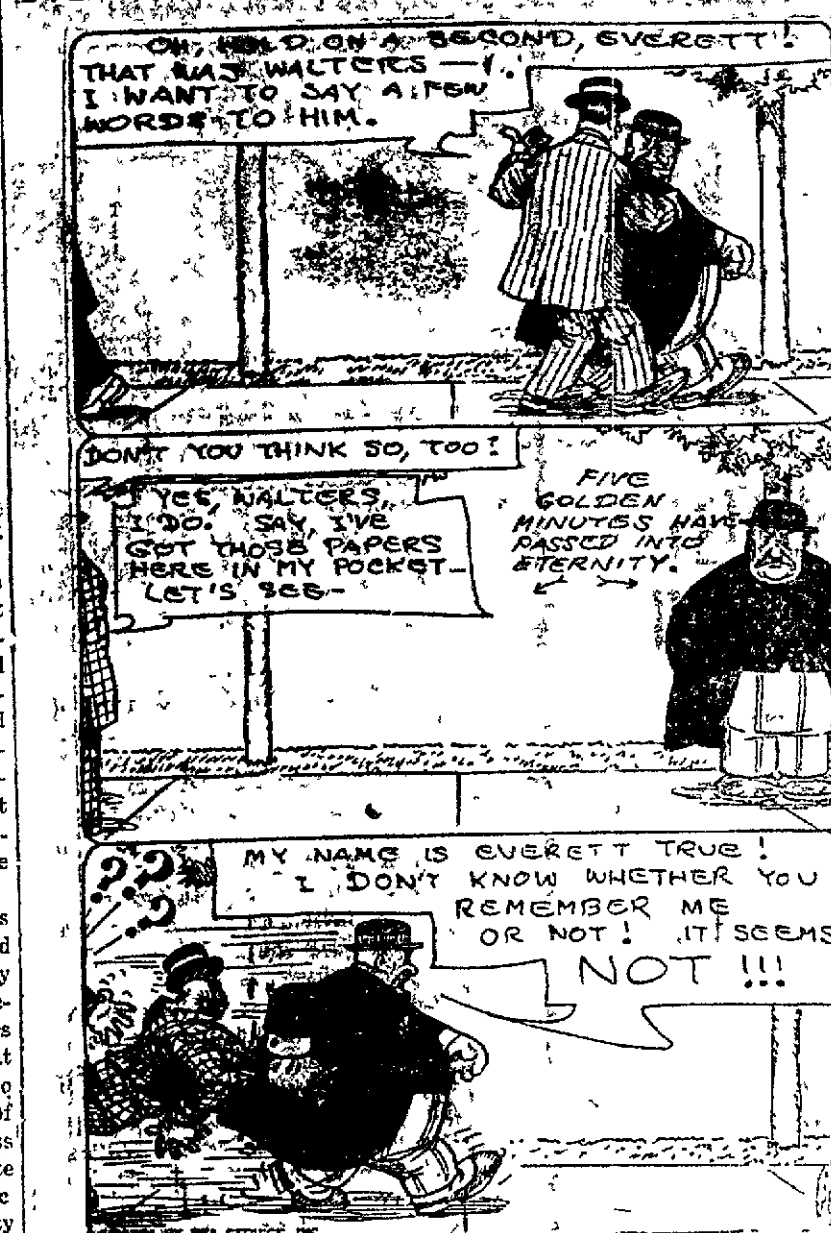

Call money opened at 2 1/2 per cent but was marked up to 3 per cent in the fourth hour.

GRAIN CLOSING

Chicago, Oct. 28 (INS).—Grains with the exception of corn eased off in the closing hours of trade today and finished generally lower.

Wheat closed 1 5/8 to 2 1/8 off; corn finished 1-2 at 7-8 higher and oats closed, 1-4 to 3-8 lower.

The early advance in wheat ran into considerable hedging and liquidation which the market managed to absorb until the closing hours when buying became more limited and prices slumped. Higher cables were responsible for much of the buying.

Stomach Remedy A Fast Seller

Dare's Mentha Pepsin

Six Thousand Bottles Sold in One New Jersey Town Last Year. Stewart Drug Co. Declares Money Back If One Bottle Doesn't Make Any Stomach Sufferer Rejoice.

At last the way has been found to combine Pepsin with other corrective stomach agents so that it will do the most good in the shortest possible time.

Why bother with slow actors when one desiccated spoonful of this splendid and pleasant liquid remedy will cause gas, bloating, heaviness, acidity, heartburn or any upset condition of the stomach to speedily vanish.

And why should any man or woman suffer another hour with indigestion or any stomach misery when the remedy that acts almost instantly can be easily procured?

But there is more to say about this remarkable remedy—something that will interest thousands of despondent people.

Dare's Mentha Pepsin not only quickly relieves stomach distress, but it also conquers stubborn indigestion, dyspepsia and gastritis, and puts an end to dizziness, nervousness, headache, sleeplessness and despondency which distressing troubles are nearly always caused by chronic stomach disturbances.

Dare's Mentha Pepsin is pleasant to take, has a delightfully refreshing taste and after it has put your stomach in a clean and healthy condition just notice how much better you look and feel. For besides correcting stomach disorders this supremely good remedy that Stewart Drug Co. and druggists everywhere guarantee, is a fine tonic that builds you up and makes you work with vim, eat with relish and sleep soundly.

CONSTITUTION A SAFEGUARD

Tacoma (Wash.) News Tribune: The fundamental difference between the La Follette group and the two other parties is reflected in the La Follette attack on the Constitution. The radical group proposes, in effect, that the United States abandon its present form of government with balancing powers and make Congress the final power in the government by giving it the right to override Supreme court decisions.

Has Congress gained the confidence of the people to the extent that they desire to entrust it with such power? The Constitution is really the safeguard of the people's liberties against any possible legislative or executive tyranny. It affords religious freedom; the right to own property; the right to trial by jury. Excessive bail, fines and cruel punishment are prohibited. The right of suffrage is given to women.

As General Davies says, "What kind of a government would this be if Congress had the right to pass a law telling every citizen where to go to church or taking his property away and giving it to someone?" This might happen if the La Follette plan were adopted, whereby Congress by re-enacting an offending law, could make it constitutional.

DO WE WANT EUROPEAN CONDITIONS HERE?

In his opening speech at New York, Senator La Follette said:

"The greatest inspiration of the world today is the fact that in every quarter of the globe the people are gaining control of their governments. * * * On every side we see a reawakening of the people, a rebirth of genuine democracy. It is that fact, my friends, which should give us here in America hope, determination, and supreme confidence. The tidal wave of democracy that is sweeping the world knows no national boundaries or continental limitations. It is today sweeping over the United States."

What does not mean that in the opinion of Senator La Follette Old World countries are in advance of America in promoting the welfare of their people, what does it mean? How many Americans want this country to follow Russia, Germany, France, or even Great Britain, in their recent courses? How many farmers, in spite of their present troubles, how many working men, would change places with European farmers and working men? The November elections will tell.

CASH VALUE OF EDUCATION

Evidently the "white collar jobs" don't pay so poorly after all, if the collars are combined with education. A report from the College of Business Administration of Boston University gives a set of facts about the cash value of trained minds that can be understood by anybody.

The man whose education stops short of high school goes to work at 14 and reaches his highest income, $1,200 a year, at the age of 30. At 45 or 50 his earning power begins to slacken, because manual labor depends on physical strength, and he is likely to be dependent on others at 60. His whole working period, from 14 to 60, has brought him about $45,000.

The high school graduate goes to work at 18. At 25 he passes the highest income of the untrained man. He rises steadily to his own maximum earning power at 40, and continues there for practically the rest of his life. From 18 to 60 he earns $78,000.

The college graduate starts to earn at 22, and by the time he is 28 is earning as much as the high school graduate at 40. His earning power increases from then on, rather than diminishes, because it depends on mental ability and is helped along by experience. From 22 to 60 he earns $150,000.

It is surely worth while to train the mind, from a merely pecuniary standpoint, if a boy makes $33,000 by going to high school four years, and $72,000 more by going to college four years.

"Such an issue as this transcends every question of today."

"We face a world wherein the supreme material problem is that of equitable distribution of wealth. The Democrat stands for the position of that law and government policy should encourage the distribution of that wealth with all proper regard for the toil of the men who produce it; the Republican party for the doctrine that if we turn the major portion of that wealth to a competent few, they will themselves distribute it for the benefit of the many."

"The Democratic party stands for the utmost possible democracy in industry; the Republican for a glorified oligarchy."

Paleolithic Man Ambidextrous.

Films implements made by the earliest tribes of Paleolithic man, long before he had arrived at the dignity of a spear and a shield, have hand grips, some for the right and some for the left hand, about fifty-fifty, indicating that in that age man was still ambidextrous like his cousin, the ape. Also his spirited drawings of the snarling toothed tiger and other neighbors were sometimes left handed and sometimes right handed. Plato and Aristotle both advocated training in two-handedness.

AUDITOR GENERAL MUST LOOK TO THE ATTORNEY GENERAL SAYS COURT ORDER

Harrisburg, Pa., Oct. 27 (INS)—Auditor General S. S. Lewis will be required to refer all of his legal difficulties and disputes pertaining to his office to the State Department of Justice for legal advice and to follow the advice given by the latter department unless a question of unconstitutionality is raised according to a peremptory mandamus issued in Dauphin county court by Judge Fox.

The decision is in the demurrer filed by Auditor General Lewis to the alternative writ of mandamus obtained by Attorney General Woodruff's office in disputes involving State appropriations. Lewis had refused to approve requisitions against the appropriations after Attorney General Woodruff had held them to be legal.

Judge Hargest ruled today that in the State appropriation dispute between Piccirilli Brothers Company of New York, against Auditor General Lewis and State Treasurer Snyder, the administrative code permits Lewis and Snyder to approve and pay the State appropriation for the State's General Meade monument in Washington.

The Auditor General had refused to approve a requisition against the monument appropriation claiming.

BEAUTY IN THE HOME

By FLORENCE DAVIES

Worriers who are much upset over the passing of the home are urged to find something else to worry about. Old-fashioned homes with front and back porches, two side doors and two apple trees in the back-yard to tie the clothes line to, are growing scarce. But homes are by no means vanishing, and the interest in them is growing, rather than waning.

If any city in the country, large or small, wants to get out a crowd, just let it start a Better Home show. Men and women will flock thither and discuss every phase of the house: beautiful, from lamp-shades to wall paper. Newspapers which publish the plans of small homes are flooded with requests for building information. Business firms which open ideal homes or furnish well appointed rooms are never at a loss for spectators.

Just the other day conversation at a luncheon table languished a little. Someone at the front end of the board, said something about antiques, and instantly a woman at the other end, took up the word as if it had been flashed by an electric current, and at once the talk was brisk and animated.

Ottomans, it seems, were scarcer than hen's teeth, but someone knew where they was a good old Sleepy Hollow Chair. And the odd thing about it is that the guests weren't all newly-weds who were just furnishing their homes, either. Some of them weren't even married, and some had been married and settled in homes for years, but every woman there spoke the home language.

We smile a little tolerantly at the time our grandmothers wasted patching silk quilts and making hooked rugs. But the joke is on us, for we are paying hundreds of dollars for the rugs today.

Cutting up silk and sewing it together again with fancy stitches was only a little foolish because the result was seldom beautiful. The "crazy" quilt was too often, alas, just what the beautiful love of home, and that fundamental love of home, and of the beautiful home, remains.

But let no one imagine that the plans of small homes are flooded with requests for building information. Business firms which open ideal homes or furnish well appointed rooms are never at a loss for spectators.

SEAL SALE CONFERENCE

Mrs. Gilbert, Mrs. Jean Fridy and Mrs. Carrie Buchanan were the representatives from Clearfield County Society at the annual Seal Sale Conference held at the Penn Alto Hotel, Altoona, last month, under the auspices of the National Tuberculosis Association. New ideas and methods were presented and discussed for making the 1924 Christmas Seal Sale the biggest ever. Let us all get set for this big event in our respective towns.

THE JOLLY JESTER ON THE JOB

Perhaps the largest undertaking of our Society during the year of education of the children in health habits and hygienic living was brought to a close on Saturday, October eleven with two capacity houses at the DeLuga Theatre, Clearfield. "The Jolly Jester" had been giving two or more performances at the several towns mentioned before every day of the preceding week, and some idea of the number reached can be got when we say that 14,575 children attended. The influence and impressions made by this health clown can scarcely be exaggerated and was unquestionably the effort and the expenditure of his time here. Starting at Coalbrook, Monday morning, where the Chairman, Mrs. Bend, had everything ready, 1200 children crowded into the theatre. At Irwinton the afternoon about 500 under the direction of Mrs. Ira Plank enjoyed the entertainment. Tuesday morning, Dr. and Mrs. Howles had everything ready at Malady. Curwensville and vicinity. Wednesday shows which Miss Marjorie Hile had charge of, and which were attended by about 2500. Wednesday afternoon, Woodland was the scene, where the stage had been prepared by Dr. and Mrs. Snavely and Mrs. J. A. Miller arranged for the evening. Thursday morning, 1000 or more children were present at the home of Mrs. Morgan Hayes, where Mrs. Gould and Mrs. Winkler brought the banner crowd to the theatre. Friday morning, 2200 children and 2000 children were in some manner gathered into the theatre for the single performance. Mrs. Jean Fridy had the children assembled for Thursday afternoon, and Mrs. Somerville for Friday morning. An extra show was put on at Glades Flat through Miss Anna Maxwell's efforts, and at Morrisdale, where B. Maxwell made arrangements and Prof. Switzer marshaled the forces on Friday.

We can not too heartily thank these many good workers in these towns for their wonderful assistance, for it was a small job to gather and watch a number of children and keep them out of harm's way. The theatre owners and managers who so generously gave their buildings, as well as the Board of the Methodist Church at Woodland. All we can say in addition is that you doubt at all that the parents of any child who attended the committee's only regret is that we could not have the Jolly Jester for a longer time so that every section of our county could see and hear the health sermon. Two things prevented it, viz: he could not remain a longer time, and our finances. With the next Christmas Seal approaching so fast it is our hope that it will be a record breaker and that we will be able to play return engagements and cover the several sections that we could not possibly reach in the one week we had for so doing.

QUARTERLY MEETING

A regular quarterly meeting of the Clearfield County Tuberculosis Society will be held at Jordan's Hotel, Clearfield, on Thursday, October Thirtieth at 1 P. M. This meeting will be devoted chiefly to Seal Sale business and every member is urged to be on hand.

AT THE COUNTY FAIR

The booth conducted by our Society at the Clearfield County Fair during the week of September twenty-third was visited and utilized by hundreds of the visitors and made a greater hit than any previous year. Miss Gracey, the State Clinic nurse, co-operated most earnestly in the display and made the booth a real temporary health center not only for children but also for the grown-ups who came to be weighed and measured in large numbers. It is rather significant that the adults are really becoming educated in the health problems and their own health. They hear the children relate the lessons taught and see what results are obtained in them. They are reading almost daily of health examinations and the importance of early detection of a break in this or that organ. That is the reason they come in so much larger numbers to the places such as our booth at the Fair where neglect of their physical welfare is denounced and maintenance of sound bodies is preached. Mrs. H. A. Blair assisted in the work. The Fair Association liberally donated the space in the Exhibition Building.

"MAN'S HUMANITY TO MAN"

Ladies and Gentlemen:

It is my first visit to this town honored annual outing at Fruit Hill which from what I have seen today is a very reasonable cause for bringing together such a large number of people. You all come and have come to this affair year after year because you feel that you are greatly benefited by so doing in a number of ways, physically through the good food that is provided, mentally through the instructive talks that you hear, spiritually by the pleasant social intercourse and rubbing shoulders with your fellowmen.

May I turn your attention just for a few minutes to a subject in which all of us are vitally interested either consciously or unconsciously. I use the word "vitally" advisedly, for it has to do with the lives and living of each and every one. No public appropriations or private donations are in my opinion better invested than those directed along this line of endeavor, and yet it has only been for about the last 25 years that national, state, or municipal departments have been functioning in the great matter of health among their constituents. There is no better proof of man's humanity to man or that we are today at a higher social level than the progressive organized efforts for preserving the lives and bettering the lives of our fellowmen.

The birth of the Department of Health in our great Keystone state took place in the year 1855. Massachusetts, the first state in the Union to have a department or board of health began 16 years previously. These early health boards were largely statistical and advisory, having neither the power nor the means to carry on work as they do today. Many here can recall with what resistance the early health officers met when they first began enforcing quarantine regulations to control and stamp out contagious diseases. Personal liberty was being encroached upon in the eyes of many at that time as it has been since the passage of the 13th amendment. How many of us today antagonize the enforcement of health statutes? We have learned our lesson by experience, and let us hope that the same attitude may soon be nullified by those who today strive to tickle the dry enforcement laws.

One of the earliest diseases at which the Health Departments and volunteer agencies directed attention, was tuberculosis, then the chief cause of death in the United States. That was the time it was called the great White Plague, and today it has been put down to the third place among the causes of death in this country. The National Tuberculosis Association was organized in 1904. The Pennsylvania Tuberculosis Society is an integral part of the former, and the Clearfield County Tuberculosis Society is a unit of the State organization. These have all come into being to assist in routing the old enemy T. B. with their members all volunteer workers. They cooperate wherever possible with the state, and local health boards. I think it can be justly claimed by the small army of tuberculosis fighters throughout the United States that the most potent evidence of results they have accomplished in their organized fight is the lowering of the death rate. This has consistently diminished since 1920 when the first world wide records were compiled. At that time the various forms of tuberculosis caused 201 deaths in every 100,000 in the United States. In 1923 this had been reduced below 90 per 100,000, or more than cut in half. Think of it, 104 people living in 1922 in every 100,000 who 22 years ago would have died of some form of tuberculosis. Are not such results worth while? What values in dollars and cents can measure the salvaging of these lives, and is not the investment made by your state and the money you spend for the little seals at Christmas time put to a far better use than you realize? I mention the little Christmas seals because the income derived from this source is the means of keeping up the work of the volunteer work against T. B. as carried out by the Pennsylvania Society and your county organization. Aren't the dimes, quarters and dollars you pay for these little stickers that you put on your gifts and mail providing the greatest gift of all, viz: That of life to some poor individual already suffering or in preventing others from acquiring a disease that would cost them their lives. Our life saving work in Pennsylvania has shown more marked results than in the United States at large, for we have reduced the death rate in our state below the average for the whole country, it being only 56 per 100,000, and we of the Clearfield County Tuberculosis Society are proud to have the State Statistician inform us that the rate for our county alone is only 52 per 100,000. I know that many of you say to yourselves that this work must be going on somewhere remote from Fruit Hill, as you know of none of it being done nor of any money being spent in this section. Let me say that there is not a section of Clearfield County that is not covered by our society workers and also by the State Department of Health. Every town about here has a committee who take care of the work, most often I am sorry to say, by the good women. Cases are looked up, homes visited, patients taken to the dispensary for

NO RESPIRE FOR RICHARD LOEB ON FATHER'S DEATH

Chicago, Oct. 28. (INS.)—No respite from the life of monotony behind the gray stone walls of Joliet state penitentiary will come to Richard A. Loeb through the death of his father, Albert H. Loeb.

This became known today when Jacob M. Loeb, venerable uncle of the youthful slayer of Robert Franks, brought the news of the death to Richard in the solitude of the guard room at Joliet.

After advising Richard, Jacob Loeb told Warden Whitman that no request that the boy be permitted to attend the funeral services would be made.

examination and to be listed for the state sanatoria at Mt. Alto, Hamburg, and Cresson. Most of our cases go to Cresson on account of its proximity. Clothing and food often have to be provided in emergencies where the father or wage earner has to be taken away for treatment. When patients are taken to Cresson we frequently have to provide transportation to and from there, although the County Commissioners who serve as Poor Board in our county take care of a large number of such contingencies. Our committee women have been weighing and measuring the school children in many parts of the county, and many larger schools have been provided with scales for this purpose. Underweight and under-nourished children are discovered in this way and visits to the homes where instructions and care are given to bring them up to normal, remembering the old adage, of a sound body being necessary for a sound mind and right thinking. Milk is frequently provided over a period for this type of case. This is preventive work as it has long been shown that the tuberculosis germ finds a ready harbor and develops much faster where there is poor resistance due to undernourishment and improper feeding. Health plays are put on in the schools and the Modern Health Crusade, a systematic method of education in health habits and hygiene, is introduced wherever practicable with the teachers. These are some of the ways and means of accomplishing the results that have been attained. Meanwhile the National Tuberculosis Association constantly has a corps of workers investigating further in the effort to find a cure as well as means of immunizing the healthy against this dread disease. Whenever some new cure is heralded they are the first to get it and make thorough tests, etc., to find out if it is at last what has been hoped for for years. We are sorry that up to this time, in spite of whatever claims have been made, no cure or preventive of tuberculosis in the way of serums, antitoxins, or medicines has been found.

(Delivered at annual outing of the Fruit Hill Presbyterian Church, Clearfield County, Pa., August, 1924, attended by about 4500, by J. Paul Frantz, M. D.)

Curwensville's Own Column

Mr. and Mrs. William Emerick, of DuBois, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Forcey, North Pine street.

A covey of Halloween dances are on the boards to come off in Curwensville next Friday evening. One in Red Men's rooms, a masquerade and another in the Opera House, besides several hops in private dwellings.

An effort is being put forth to hold a Mummer's parade in this place on Halloween. The one booked to be held last year proved a fizzle, although several hundred folks walked the streets clothed in all sorts of costumes.

The finishing work on the new concrete Anderson creek bridge will be completed this week. A coating of tar and gravel has been laid on the bridge floor and the side walls trimming and floated up to make their appearance more pleasing to the eye. The work is being done under the supervision of borough Inspector Jas. C. Wright and that fact alone is a guarantee that the work will be done according to the plan and specifications.

The B. R. & P. railroad Co., have a crew of men and a steam shovel at work above the crossing on south side of Anderson creek, taking off a point of a curve in the upper bank, making the clearance from road to crossing more plainly by those who are compelled to still use the Grampian road.

A revival meeting will be commenced in the Lutheran church at Bloomington soon under the direction of Rev. L. E. Fineout, pastor of the Baptist church here, and Rev. H. E. Rundell of Endicott, N. Y. Rev. Rundell has been holding meetings at Sykesville lately and has baptised more than half a hundred persons as the result of his work.

An air plane did a good business in this vicinity Sunday by carrying passengers through the air for five minute journey. The rate came rather high, $5 for three minutes in the air, but there were a lot of people who wanted the experience and curiosity of a ride amid the clouds in an air ship. The parties and ship came from Marietta, Ohio, and it is said had the machine for sale.

Mr. and Mrs. William Post have arrived home from their trip to Ontario, having been called thence by the death of a relative.

The big building built by the organization of Yellow Dogs out at the Park grounds is now completed, the large verandas being finished up last week. The structure will now evidently be turned over to the borough authorities, as that was the intention of the promoters in the first instance. Now what organization will be next in line to make a permanent improvement over at the river side?

Low Spencer came dangled close to running ye scribe down with his automobile yesterday afternoon. Had he done so, and we found it out it would have gone hard with him.

FORMER WOODLAND WOMAN DIES AT DUBOIS

Mrs. Alice Nale of Clear Run, a suburb of DuBois, who before her marriage to John Nale was the wife of Ellsworth Albert of Woodland, suffered a stroke Monday evening of last week from the effects of which she died last evening. Mrs. Nale returned from a lengthy trip to the west last Monday evening during which time she visited her son, Blaine in Oregon and her daughter, Mrs. Paul Loris, of Ashland, Ohio. Within 15 minutes after she came into the house she was stricken and her condition remained critical until death ensued last evening. Her maiden name was Alice Lansberry of Bradford township and she was a sister of Rish, Ralph and Richard Lansberry, well known here. Funeral services will be held at the Clear Run home on Thursday at 2 o'clock.

Spruce Gum.

Spruce gum is collected by cutting the natural lumps of gum from the tree, usually by means of a small hatchet. It can be gathered at any time of the year, but the fall and winter are usually preferred, more because of the climatic conditions than because of the availability of the gum at this time of the year. Ordinarily the gum is assorted into two classes, one of which is clear and entirely free from bark, the small amount of the material which cannot be entirely separated from bark is sometimes sold as a low grade and is separated from the bark and dirt by melting and straining.

Murphy Probably Understood.
The contractor had been to confession and told the priest that he was very sorry for the habit he had of cursing men whenever anything went wrong, so the priest advised him, the next time he was tempted, to say "God bless you!"—and he promised that he would. A few days later, however, he found one of his men loafing on the job and yelled to him: "Murphy, ye omdhann, phat's the matter wid ye? Git in there, pick up that crowbar, God bless ye!"—but—but ye know phat Oi mane.—Exchange.

FREDERICK TARRING PARTY IS SENTENCED; MEN GET TWO YEARS, WOMAN NINE MONTHS

Fredrick, Md., Oct. 27. (INS)—Jury sentences were meted out here today to one woman and 11 men for their part in the tarring and feathering of pretty Dorothy Grandon, 20, along the Interstate road last July.

Mrs. L. Shanks, who took a part in the party in the tarring party because Dorothy "V. Grand" let her hand, received two sentences of nine months in the county jail.

Mrs. Shanks turned "state's evidence" at the jury trials which were given members of the mob, and incurred the enmity of her co-rioters. She said she was "sorry for the girl."

Harry Leatherman, one of the prime movers in the tarring mob, received a sentence of two years in the Maryland House of Correction for rioting and tarring and feathering.

Arthur Rice, a teacher in the Sunday School, received the same sentence.

Pice and Leatherman were said at the trial to have been the ring leaders of the mob.

Those who were given one year in the Maryland House of Correction were Alvin Rice, Calvin Shanks, John Langdon, Roma Shanks, Grayson Dobb, Vernon Summers, William Hought, Irving Rice and Walter Shanks.

The sentences were pronounced before a packed court room by Judge Hammond Under, with Associate Judge Robert Peters sitting beside him.

Before the court pronounced the sentences, attorney Samuel E. Lewis, representing Mrs. Shanks, asked the court for mercy for her, pointing out that she had acted the part of an aggrieved wife.

"I have taken all these things into consideration," replied Judge Under. "Never in my fifteen years on the bench have I ever faced such a conflict between duty and sympathy. But under the compulsion of a clear sense of duty, sentence has to be imposed by the court."

The sentences were received in silence by the crowded court room. The defendants made no demonstration, nor did the spectators, nearly all of whom were related to some of those convicted. The sentences, however, came as a shock to the staid Dunkard community of Myersville where the defendants live.

Thief Shows Originality.
Thieves are not common in Alaska, but when one does appear he generally exhibits an originality of conduct difficult for less accomplished folks to comprehend. As an instance of this characteristic a thief broke into a store at Douglas recently and stole all the 1916 tags provided for licensed dogs, thus subjecting every canine in town to the danger of being taken up by the dog catcher.

The Real Objection.
Your objection to special privilege probably is based on the fact that you are not permitted to enjoy it.—Tospe Capital.

A Good Nurse.
"A good nurse," said Florence Nightingale, the heroine of the Crimea, "should understand every change in a patient's face, and every change of attitude and voice. She ought to study these things until she feels sure that no one else understands them half as well. A really good nurse must be of the highest class of character and should be the Seamen on the Mount in herself."

Position of Advantage.
Barnes (to Shedd, who has just finished a long letter)—"Funny that you should write long letters to your wife when you have so little to say to her when she is present." Shedd—"Not at all. When I am writing I have the floor."—Boston Transcript

BAD BREATH

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Get at the Cause and Remove It

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work.

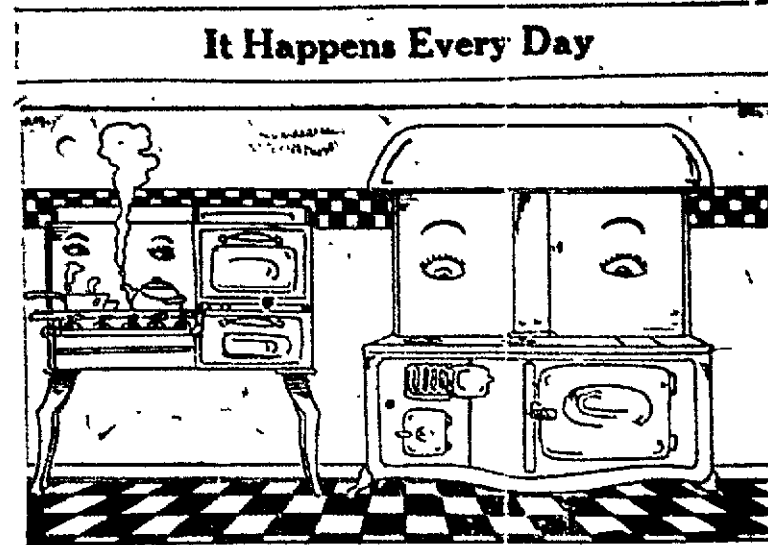

People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system. They do that which dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects.

All the benefits of nasty, sickening, gripping, catarrhes are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without gripping, pain or any disagreeable effects.

Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint, with the attendant bad breath.

Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color. Take one or two every night for a week and note the effect. 15c and 50c.

Thoughts of A Cold Kitchen Range—

"They certainly don't believe in keeping the home fires burning in this kitchen—except in that tricky-looking gas range they put in. I haven't had so much as a match lit inside me for four months.

"Times certainly have changed around here—I used to be the big center of interest. Mrs. Allen used to say I was the 'cutest stove she ever saw' when she was first married.

"Many a biscuit I used to harden for her in those days—her cakes wouldn't rise and her coffee wouldn't settle, and she used to spill things all over me—but we were good friends, just the same.

"But since she got that maid and the gas range—I've been as cold as an Esquimaux's sleeping porch. What I need is warmth.

"Mrs. Allen is opening my oven door and telling some lady what a good cooker I am. What's the idea, I wonder?

"Well, what d'ye think of that? This lady said she thought I must be a pretty good stove from the description of me in Mrs. Allen's ad in the classified section of the Progress, and she's bought me!

"I might have known that!"

SQUIRE ROACH IS STILL CLEANING UP MOONSHINERS

'Squire Roach, the Woodward township dry rider, extended his activities down as far as Ocoee and across the County border to just inside the five hundred yard limit in Centre County and had the hides of four moonshiners ready to tack upon his official coal shed.

The raiding 'Squire was accompanied by Sheriff T. J. Lowell, Deputy Sheriff Hummelbaugh, State Troopers Parker and Kelly, Chief of Police Carson, of Ocoee, and Constable Peterson, of Brisban.

Search warrants had been provided for four places and "pay dirt" was struck at each place visited.

The home of Walter Urick was first visited. Here the raiders discovered a still, 50 gallons of mash, 3 1/2 gallons of whiskey and 29 bottles of beer.

John Crowhoski's place yielded one still, 5 gallons of wine and 3 gallons of whiskey.

Mrs. Edwin Cravish was next visited and produced 60 gallons of mash, one coil for a still, one half gallon of whiskey.

Frank Younick was found in possession of 150 gallons of mash, a 20 gallon still and 5 gallons of whiskey.

Mike Sincovich, found at one of the places, put up a battle and was taken into custody charged with resisting arrest.

Bail to the amount of $2500 each was asked of the alleged moonshiners, and all were able to dig it up but Crowhoski and he is now in jail.

SUFFERED PAIN FOR YEARS

Mrs. Jahr Finally Relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Howard Lake, Minnesota.—"I write to let you know that I have taken several bottles of your medicine in the last three months, and found it to be very good. I had pains and other troubles women have and was not able to do my work. Seeking your 'Ad.' in the paper, I thought of giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. I got some results from it and feel able to do my own work now. I used to have lots of pain, but after taking the medicine I am relieved from pains that I had suffered from for years. I recommend this Vegetable Compound to my friends, and hope this letter will be satisfactory for you. I am, Sir, Mrs. J. Jahr,

NEVER AGAIN

YOUR forefather's bathtub was the creek. He mirrored his face in a basin of water and made his fire with a flint. His Ford was a horse's shanks, his electric light a wick in tallow, his telephone a shrill shouting through his hands. He hewed for his furniture, spun for his cloths, tilled, sewed, reaped, ground, mixed, baked for his bread. When he died, not a newspaper printed the news, and his possessions were too few for a will.

You'll never have to go back to his old discomforts. Not while printed pages are available. News and advertising have carried far the story of new inventions. Every day more are added, more things for use, for comfort, for enjoyment.

Advertisements tell you about them. It pays to read advertisements.

CHURCHES

SEVENTY-FIVE REGISTERED AT THE STANDARD TRAINING SCHOOL IN THE TRINITY M. E. CHURCH

The Training School for Sunday School workers opened formally in Trinity M. E. church last night.

75 persons registered. The students are all leaders in their local schools. At least 25 more are expected to register tonight.

Dr. H. L. Jacobs delivered a thrilling chapel address upon the theme "And he Took a Towel." He referred to the Service Activities of Christ while here on earth.

Text Books "Leaders of Youth" and "How to Teach Religion" arrived this morning and can be secured to-day at Trinity M. E. parsonage. Primary Methods and Worker and H. Bible will be on hand tonight and can be secured at the church.

The school sessions begin at 7:15 p. m. tonight at 8:05 there will be a brief service to be followed with a study period and another class session.

Dean Kobach announced that the Methodist pastors of Clearfield had decided to conduct a Union Prayer Service on Wednesday evening in connection with the Training school. The service will begin at 8:10 o'clock and will be the chapel service of the Training school.

Dr. E. A. Pyles, District Supt. Wilkes-Barre, Pa., will deliver the address, admission to all sessions on Wednesday evening will be free. All are cordially invited to attend and to remain for the last class session.

LUTHERAN CHURCH NOTES

The last Sunday of the month the Sunday school keeping up a splendid record of attendance throughout the month.

All are anxiously looking forward to Double-Up Day or 24 and many have already registered their activities. Let's go.

Over the top, a morning hour of worship a friend of the congregation, Mr. Johnson of Gary, Ind., delivered a message on "Leaves for Lessons." Dr. Johnson has been at Psalm 133. He brought to see the handwork of nature as never before. As they loved how the leaves of their mission so the righteous will find his mission wherever they go. Leaves purify—so the righteous man will purify the community in which he lives. Many of the leaves were used, but more so than the influence of nature in the city where the leaves grow.

TRINITY CHURCH ITEMS

Bible School maintained its record Sunday of exceeding the year 1923 in both attendance and offerings. There was exceptional interest in all the periods of the session. The lesson held direct attention of the classes. Strangers and visitors were welcomed.

For the morning worship special music was prepared, which all enjoyed. From Psalm 84:8, "O Lord God of Hosts, hear my prayer, give ear, O God of Jacob." The subject of "Prayer" was evolved, stressing not the nature or any philosophy of prayer, but the facts that are known, such as that men do pray, sometimes as beggars and abject cowards; occasionally as petitioners and ambitious workers. That there is power in prayer for any spiritual grace was amplified with abundant illustrations. To whom shall men pray? Not only to a God of power as the Lord of Hosts, having countless forces at command or the ruler of vast legions or personalities like cherubim, seraphim, angels, and principalities and powers, but more as the God who relates himself to men, the God of Jacob, the God that transforms suppliants into princes of God. To such a God men must pray for themselves and others.

In the evening from Ephesians 2:10, the pastor took a survey, under Paul's analysis, of the condition of men prior to the effectual working of divine grace, and then studied them, quickened, raised up, and made to fit together in heaven in Christ Jesus, that in the ages to come (1924 A. D.) he might show (to the people of Clearfield) the exceeding riches of His grace in His kindness toward us through Christ Jesus.

The duct by Mr. Thorn and Miss Smith, with chorus taking the refrain was a helpful selection.

This week's events. Trustees meet, Wednesday, 8:40. Every night of the month the Training School, which was organized yesterday afternoon and had its first session in Trinity church, will begin at 7:15, first class, 1000 work; the assembly starts at 8:10; class is resumed at 8:30. Rev. W. L. Armstrong will be at Trinity church every evening for registration of students. The assembly is open to the public, apart from registration. On Wednesday night Dr. E. A. Pyles will have charge of the assembly period.

Take Inventory of Self. Let every man study himself carefully and see if there is any discord, discontent and disgust in his character. If so let him begin the fight of his life to eradicate it. If this is not done he will be a miserable failure, a farmer and an object of pity for his neighbors.—Farm Life.

CHRISTIANS MAY BE SOLDIERS, DECISION OF THE LUTHERANS

Chicago, Oct. 27 (INS)—Christians may be soldiers.

The Lutheran Church of America took this stand today in a resolution defending "just" wars, which was adopted after a stormy debate in which the pacifist element of the Church was defeated.

The action of the Church, putting it definitely on record as opposed to the outlawing of war for Christians, was taken at the Fourth Biennial Convention of the United Lutheran Church in America, in session here.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH NOTES

The services on the Sabbath Day were of rich blessing and power. At the morning hour of worship it was our privilege to have with us again Miss Ellen Fryer who accompanied Miss Franke in the vocal solo "O Lord Most Holy," with Mrs. Bay, the organist. It was wonderfully well rendered and appreciated by all who heard. The message of the morning was on the theme, Life a Tale, comparing the individual life to a story, with its many chapters some good and some bad, emphasizing at the end that the greatest life must have in its chapters the model life of Him who is our Saviour. The evening was the last in the series "Building for Life." "The Church." For the past six week the series has been growing, adding to the great building those things which are most essential, beginning with the School, Work, Play, Friends, Home and lastly the Church. A series which could not help but give one a better understanding of the best way to build, in order that the life might be a well rounded life of love and service for Him.

Wednesday evening the mid-week prayer service invites every one to join in the hour of prayer and praise. The Westminster Guild will sew on Wednesday evening in place of Thursday this week.

Thursday evening the monthly meeting of Class No. 4. This will not be a masquerade party.

Thursday evening the weekly prayer and praise service at the Reedsville Chapel. Mr. C. W. Howard will have charge of the service.

Next Sabbath evening the service will be a musical one, special program is being prepared. Plan to come.

November 13th, meeting of all the Churches in this district to be held in this church. Afternoon and evening session, with prominent men and women to address all sessions.

New Premier

Dr. W. W. Yen is China's new war-time premier. His appointment, held up by political bickering, was rushed through after civil strife began to assume serious proportions. He formerly was minister of agriculture and commerce. Dr. Yen is a graduate of the University of Virginia.

Mexican Rainfall

The low rainfall of the extreme north of Mexico of two to three inches on the border of Arizona, and the excessive fall, reaching 156 inches, at the Isthmus of Tehuantepec, with the high rate for Monterey and the moderate fall for the capital, show the remarkable are the hygroscopic conditions due to topography. The maximum rainfall is only exceeded in very few regions of the globe.

JORDAN'S

Foolish Husband Now Has Something Real To Make Him Trouble

Wooster, Ohio, Oct. 27 (INS).—A picture of stoic calm, Mrs. Blanche Tobias, 21, appeared before Mayor M. R. Limb today for arraignment on the charge of murdering her baby son.

"How do you plead, guilty or—"
"Yes, I'm guilty," she replied before the Mayor could complete the formal question. These were the only words she spoke at the hearing. She was remanded to jail to await Grand Jury action.

Her husband, notified yesterday of the child's death went to the county infirmary last night for the body. He took it to Smithville, near here, where interment was made today. An older child, Elsie, aged 2 years and six months, was placed in the children's home today.

Returning from her arraignment, to jail, Mrs. Tobias, calmly repeated her admissions that she had killed her baby boy, because it wouldn't have a fair chance.

"My husband wouldn't believe the child was his," she said, her calm never breaking for a moment. "I thought it was better dead. Yes, I killed it and I'm not sorry."

"The law can do what it will, the baby's safe from a hard life, where people would sneer at him because my husband said he wasn't his father."

Prosecutor C. O. Fritz planned to ask an early indictment of Mrs. Tobias, who has been left alone in her trouble. Neither her husband nor other relatives have yet visited her since her incarceration.

The woman, alone in the county jail talks only when spoken to and then answers questions with the fewest possible words. Attorneys have not yet been employed to defend her—the woman who killed her baby "because it couldn't have a fair chance."

EDWARD BELL, PROMINENT IN DIPLOMATIC SERVICE, DIES

London, Oct. 23 (INS).—Edward Bell of New York, counselor of the American embassy at Peking, died today of heart disease, according to a dispatch to the London Express.

Bell had been in the diplomatic service 15 years serving in Egypt, Persia, Cuba and Tokio before going to Peking. He was 42 years old. He was one of the secretaries of the American delegation at the disarmament conference in Washington and American Observer at the China-Japanese conference on the Shantung question.

Daily Thought.

Little do men perceive what solitude is and how far it extends; for a crowd is not company, and faces are but a gallery of pictures and talk but a tinkling cymbal where there is no love.—Bacon.

—to have a good APPETITE!

"Yes! thank you."

A GOOD appetite means a cheerful disposition.

You may have a good appetite if the blood that goes constantly to your vital organs is pure. S.S.S. purifies the blood—a good appetite follows and you will have a clear complexion and will be strong, cheerful and healthy.

Don't go on feeling up one day and down the next—hardly sick but never well—losing "pep," punch and ambition. Hoarse eaters are the red-blooded men and women. Enjoy your food! Get back your strength and energy! Reclaim your life before it is too late! People in a physically run-down condition are an easy prey to disease.

S.S.S. is what is needed. Your blood needs purifying. Your blood cells supply the energy which keeps your body well and fit. S.S.S. sits Nature in supplying new red-blood cells—the spark that renews your system. Carefully selected, scientifically proportioned and prepared herbs and barks make up S.S.S.—the great blood purifier which gives Nature a helping hand.

Get back the lost appetite, the missing vitality, the keen, sparkling eyes, the look of determination. S.S.S. will give you more energy, vitality and vigor and a more up and going appearance.

S.S.S. is sold at all good drug stores in 10¢, 25¢ and 50¢ sizes. The larger size is more economical.

GIRL, 14, SHOTS SELF AFTER WHIPPING

Wallington, N. J. Oct. 27.—(INS.)—Valentine Suder, 14, shot and killed herself today because her father scolded her for remaining outside her home late last night.

"I hope he's found dead" under a fence some day like a dog," said a note she left, alluding to the father, a tinsmith.

Suder said he reproved the girl for her late hours and then whipped her.

FRANCE RECOGNIZES SOVIET RUSSIA

Paris, October 23. (INS.)—France this afternoon formally recognized the Russian Soviet government. A note to that effect is being sent to Moscow.

D. L. SOMMERVILLE IS SUPERINTENDENT OF PA. DIV., N. Y. C.

The patrons of the Pennsylvania Division of the New York Central Railroad will be interested in learning that several important changes have been made in the directing heads or management of the Division, as a result of a realignment of the division heads of the company, which took place on Saturday last.

As a result of this reassignment Supt. D. L. Sommerville has been advanced from the Mohawk Division to the Superintendency of the Pennsylvania Division. The new Superintendent has been connected with the N. Y. C. for many years and is a finished railroad man and his assignment to the Pennsylvania Division will be welcome news to his many friends in this region.

Mr. Sommerville succeeds Howard Scott, who assumes the Superintendency of the Mohawk Division, with headquarters at Albany, N. Y.

Assistant Superintendent W. A. Hanter of Jersey Shore, who like Mr. Scott, is a former Clearfielder, was advanced to the position of Superintendent of the Ontario Division and has his headquarters at Oswego, New York.

The Assistant Superintendent of the Pennsylvania Division has not been chosen as yet.

GENERAL STONE IS "CLEANING UP" LAW ENFORCING BRANCH

Washington, Oct. 27 (INS.)—Six U. S. District Attorneys have resigned and four more have been asked to resign in the last three months, Attorney General Stone revealed today in declaring that there had been a "general clean up" in the Law Enforcement branch of the Government since last July.

The Attorney General would not disclose the identity of the District Attorneys or state the districts affected, but said that "great progress" had been made in despoising of prohibition cases since Mabel Walker Willebrandt, assistant Attorney General wrote her famous letter to the Law Enforcement League of Philadelphia blaming indolent district attorneys for lax prohibition enforcement.

Mrs. Willebrandt's letter has been made the cause of furor recently. She wrote it last July, and in it she stated that if she had her way a considerable number of district attorneys would be "kicked out" for non enforcement of the liquor laws. She also blamed politics, particularly Senators

MORAVIA, N. Y. GIRL BEATS FATHER TO DEATH AS HE LAYS ON COUCH ASLEEP

Moravia, N. Y., Oct. 27 (INS.)—A police guard was placed this afternoon over the ward in which 19-year-old Suzanna Riley, alleged slayer of her father, Charles, Riley, sixty, farmer, is being held for observation. District attorney Benn Kenyon, ordered the girl placed under arrest technically on an open charge. She will be held at the hospital for several days for observation of her mental condition.

Dr. Leslie Snow, Cayuga county jail physician, who examined the girl, said she was suffering from mental disorders.

Moravia, N. Y. Oct. 27 (INS.)—The authorities here were arranging to have doctors make a careful observation of the actions of Miss Suzanna Riley, 19, as a result of her having clubbed her father, Charles Riley, 60, a Moravia farmer, to death.

After refusing to let her take a position in Auburn, Riley retired to a couch. The girl got an iron bar and, while her father slept, beat him with it until he was dead.

Fear Feud Following The Killing Of Three Men In Williamson Gambling

Williamson, W. Va., Oct. 27 (INS.)—State Police were keeping a close watch today along the Mingo Wayne county boarder, near the Kentucky state line to prevent a fresh flare up in a feud which resulted yesterday in the death of three men and the wounding of two others.

Clarence Marcum and Mark Hackey were killed in a fight with State Policemen Struggle and Walls, after Harry Stacey had been slain in a battle in which Marcum and Hackey were participants. Lew Stacey, brother of the slain man is suffering from wounds received in the first fight, which, according to physicians may prove fatal. State Policeman Walls has two bullet wounds in his right arm.

Marcum and the Staceys were engaged in a card game, according to the police when the shooting suddenly began. After Harry and Lew Stacey fell, Marcum and Hackey took to the hills where they were pursued by the officers. The battle followed when the pursued men stood their ground.

Titusville, Pa., Oct. 28 (INS.)—John F. Coleman, 79, civil war veteran and musician is dead here today. Coleman, who is blind, died yesterday while playing a violin at the 25th marriage anniversary of Rev. Samuel Semple here. He served in the 54th regimental band during the civil war, and was organizer of Coleman's brass band and orchestra.

Coleman leaves a wife and five children.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Bridge spent Sunday with friends at Indiana, returning last evening.

and Congressmen, for interference in more strict enforcement where their own appointees were concerned.

"Since that letter was written," Stone said today, "There has been a general clean up. Six district attorneys have already resigned and four more have been asked to resign." He declined to give further details.

LAST OF ROUNDOUT BANDITS IS TAKEN AT BATTLE CREEK

Brent Glasscock and His Wife Found Living In
Luxury, He Suffering
With Stomach Trouble.

ADMITS IDENTITY

Battle Creek, Mich., Oct. 28. (INS.)—Brent Glasscock, alias Brent Howard, and his wife Avis, who have been popular members of the social set at the Battle Creek sanitarium since their arrival here three weeks ago, are held today by federal officials. The man is held as the last of the six principals in the Roundout, Ill., $2,000,000 mail robbery of June 12, and the woman as a conspirator sharing his guilt.

The Glasscocks were arrested last night in the fashionable west end home where they had taken a suite when Glasscock started a course of stomach treatments at the sanitarium on their arrival here. Acting on a tip from post office inspectors, police visited the house, gained entrance through a subterfuge, and confronted the couple in their suite. When shown the postoffice circulars advertising a reward for their arrest, Glasscock and his wife surrendered without resistance and admitted their identity, according to police.

Mrs. Glasscock had a sumptuous wardrobe, appraised by police at $10,000, in the suite. She was wearing at least $25,000 worth of gems, and had in her possession about $4,000 in currency and a sack of unset diamonds as large as both fists. Its value has not been estimated.

Since coming to Battle Creek, the couple had entered into the social affairs of the city, gaining entrance through the coterie at the sanitarium, where foregather social leaders from many cities. They said they lived in Kansas, and that they had returned only recently from a honeymoon in Canada, hunting. Glasscock is about 40 and his wife about 35.

Glasscock has a long criminal record, according to postal inspectors, who arrived here early today to take the prisoners to Chicago. He has been tried twice for murder, but has beaten both charges.

His arrest completes the roundup of suspects in connection with the daring robbery of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul train last June, in which $2,000,000 was taken by the bandits near Roundout, Ill. The other five are in cells in Chicago, in default of $100,000 bail each.

Davis Issues First Of Series Of Daily Talks On His Political Policy

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON

(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent.)

New York, Oct. 28.—John W. Davis, the Democratic presidential nominee, issued today the first of a series of daily statements calculated to show the electorate where he stands on national or international issues.

"The American people," the candidate said in explanation, "are entitled to know the policies which I will seek to put into effect if elected President of the United States."

"The supreme issue of this campaign," his statement continued, "is: Shall the attitude of the mind of the national administration be one of liberalism or one of reaction?"

"Shall our national policies be framed with primary regard to the interests of a few or to promote the welfare of all?"

"Shall the American Government

CHILD DIES OF BURNS

The little five year of daughter of William Russell, a Pole, who lives near Grampian, set fire to her clothing while playing with matches on Saturday last and received such severe burns that death ensued at the Clearfield Hospital a few hours later.

OLD TIME POLITICAL RALLY TOMORROW NIGHT

DEMOCRATS TO MEET
THURSDAY EVENING;
WOMEN MEET ON SAT.

A Democratic rally and about the last political meeting of the campaign will be held in the court room on the evening of Thursday, October 30th. Addresses will be made by John M. Henry, Esq., of Pittsburgh, and other prominent out of town and local Democrats. All voters, both women and men are invited to attend this meeting and hear the real issues of the campaign discussed.

County Chairman Wallace Smith is arranging for a meeting for the women to be held either next Saturday afternoon or evening and hopes to be able to bring Mrs. Edith Allen, a noted woman speaker of Williamsport here to make the principal address.

The uncertainty as to the time of the meeting is due to the fact that Mrs. Allen's time is taken up to such an extent that it is impossible for her to say at this time whether she can come to Clearfield or not. She is scheduled to speak at Johnstown Saturday evening and it is hoped to have her come to Clearfield for the afternoon and make the trip by motor to Johnstown in the evening. Failing in that, some other prominent woman speaker will be secured.

Wild Duck Alone Ties Up Trolley Lines For 2 Hours At Charleroi

Pittsburgh, Oct. 28. (INS.)—The Charleroi interurban cars were delayed more than two hours yesterday afternoon on account of one small wild duck. The duck was travelling south for the winter. It became lost from its companions and seeking a body of water flew low, came in contact with two high tension wires and caused a short circuit. The duck was destroyed.

POLITICAL TEA AT WEST SIDE MONDAY EVENING SOMETHING REAL NEW IN POLITICS

A new era was inaugurated last evening in political meetings. The one-time mass meetings, torch-light parades and ex-roads are obsolete. They have been superseded by political teas. The first "Get out the Vote" tea in the county was launched last evening by Vice Borough chairman, Mrs. W. S. Bouton and her corps of earnest workers. Sixty ladies in the comfortable parlors of the West Side House listened to excellent talks, asked questions, reported what they had already accomplished and planned their work for the rest of the campaign.

Mrs. W. S. Bouton started the ball rolling in an excellent talk on the importance of getting out the vote. Then in a few well-chosen words she introduced County Chairman Edmonds who said: "Our grandfathers fought for independence, our fathers fought to preserve the Union and the fight we have is just as important which is to retain the welfare of the country. His eulogy of President Coolidge was fine. He said that during Mr. Coolidge's first administration he had a Cabinet he did not select and a Congressional majority so small he could not depend upon it to back up his judgment and yet he has gained the confidence of the world. He said if we make a mistake in selecting a president there is no remedy. We shall have to wait for years before we can correct the error.

He spoke of Chas. G. Dawes as a lawyer, a banker and a musician. Those who have listened to his musical compositions over the radio believe he has a soul which will preserve the harmony in our government as he has brought harmony out of discordant notes.

He urged that we elect a strong Republican congress which will be a source of strength to our President. His mention of Hon. W. I. Swoope's record has met the approval of the women and there is no doubt who will get their vote for Congress.

He asked that Charles Jones be returned to the State Legislature.

Mrs. W. I. Swoope gave a most interesting account of a two week's visit with friends at Indiana.

Those Believing In Up-
Holding Constitution By
The Election Of Calvin
Coolidge Plan A Meeting

Those who believe that the people of this community are steeped in apathy and indifference to the welfare of their country in respect to taking an interest in the campaign that is upon us will do well to take a few minutes tomorrow evening to attend the political meeting at the Court Room. This meeting is being held by and under the auspices of the Coolidge-Dawes Republican Club of Clearfield and will be an answer to the "furriners" who come in from Wisconsin and a few other parts of the country which all but alienated themselves from being a part of the United States by their activities and inactivities from 1918 down to the present date, to tell us how rotten we are in Pennsylvania and who want us to go back to pre-constitution days and start all over again with Robert LaFollette in the role of Thomas Jefferson. They would also have us link arms with all the "skies" of Russia, the Marx's and others of similar ideas and tear down all that has been built up on the solid rock of the Constitution and erect thereon a house of cards built on political promises which must of necessity crumble when the mad scramble for spoils begins after the election.

This meeting will have for its purpose the awakening of whatever slumbering patriots there are in the community to the real dangers confronting our people today, not the least of which is the necessity of maintaining the true republican form of government today and the strengthening of our government by giving the Chief Executive the support he must have in every branch of government. Many observers declare that to elect Calvin Coolidge or John W. Davis president and then permit LaFollette men to invade the halls of congress would be equally disastrous as these latter would be able to hamstring the president. It would be equally dangerous to elect a congressman of divided allegiance—any of those fellows who accepted the endorsement of the LaFollette crowd in a spirit of anything to win.

The meeting is to open at eight o'clock sharp at the Court Room tomorrow evening. If you are proud of your state and believe we still have a better form of government and a higher standard of public officials than Europe, Mr. Rubin and others notwithstanding, join the throng.

6,964 STUDENTS IN NORMAL SCHOOLS OF PENNSYLVANIA NOW

Harrisburg, Oct. 28. (INS.)—Reports from the 14 State Normal Schools show an enrollment for the fall term of 6,964 students, an increase of 1,114 over last year and the largest attendance in the history of these institutions.

This number does not include any secondary pupils and is an evidence of the greater number of high school graduates who are choosing the teaching profession as their life's work.

The attendance figures for the different schools are as follows:

Bloomburg	800
California	400
Cheyny	78
Clarion	250
East Stroudsburg	550
Edinboro	494
Indiana	950
Kutztown	375
Lock Haven	262
Mansfield	660
Millersville	385
Shippensburg	460
Slippery Rock	450
West Chester	1,180

Philadelphia, Oct. 28. (INS.)—Hurrying to the scene of an automobile accident last night, Policeman William McAllister found his own brother was the victim. At St. Agnes' hospital where he was taken, Michael McAllister, the injured man, was treated for contusions of the head and body and four broken ribs. He is expected to recover.

Miss Annie Wright returned last evening from a two week's visit with friends at Indiana.

ALL RECORDS IN CAR LOADINGS BROKEN WEEK ENDING OCT. 18

Washington, Oct. 28. (INS.)—The prosperous condition of the country's railroads was indicated today by the announcement that more cars were loaded with revenue freight during the week ending Oct. 18, than during any other single week in history.

It was a "million car week," 1,102,536 cars being loaded and dispatched to destinations, exceeding by 4,843 the previous high record established in September, 1923.

"Not only does this figure represent the highest car loading for any single week in the history of American railroads, but the new high record was accomplished without car shortage, congestion or other transportation disability," according to a statement issued by the American Railway Association. "Today there are about 100,000 surplus freight cars in good repair and immediately available for service when needed, while the railroads have approximately 5,400 serviceable locomotives in storage, about twice as many as they had at this time last year.

"Record breaking grain crops have been moved without a single reported car shortage from Western States. The California perishable producers heretofore have been confronted with periodical car shortages, but this year there has been no shortage of refrigerator car equipment."

Lawrence McDonald, A Well Known Pittsburgh Newspaper Man, Dies

Pittsburgh, Pa., Oct. 28. (INS.)—Lawrence S. McDonald, 85, one of the best known newspaper men in Pittsburgh, died of pneumonia at his home here at 11:10 last night.

McDonald was born in Ridgway, Pa., and had worked for Chicago newspapers and for the Pittsburgh Gazette Times and the old Pittsburgh Dispatch. At the time of his death he was employed by the Pittsburgh Press. His book "Poems and Sonnets" was known to hundreds of his friends.

Mrs. Emma McDonald, the widow, and three brothers, M. P., of Clearfield; James H., of Pittsburgh; and Dennis McDonald, of Occola, survive.

The deceased was the youngest son of the late James and Margaret McDonald and was raised in Clearfield. He was a graduate of the Clearfield High School. Possessing exceptional literary talent and considerable poetic ability he took up newspaper work as a profession when he arrived at young manhood. He studied law in the office of the late J. F. Kendrick, Esq., but decided to devote his time to journalism and was never admitted to the bar.

He located in Pittsburgh more than 30 years ago and had since resided in that city, although doing newspaper work in Chicago and other western cities from time to time.

Genial and companionable, Larry McDonald was a man who got lots of joy out of life, and numbered his friends as legion. Possessed of the true poetic temperament he saw nothing but the bright side of every situation. He was a staunch, loyal friend, a man whom it was a pleasure to meet, and his passing will be sincerely mourned by a host of old boyhood friends here in Clearfield.

Chester, Pa., Oct. 28. (INS.)—Carroll Ogden, varsity guard on Swarthmore College football squad, has been brought to the hospital here after several weeks illness brought on by an injury received in the Pennsylvania-Swarthmore game. At first it was believed Ogden had concussion of the brain but now a blood clot is feared. He is a brother of "Curly" Ogden, the pitcher.

Philadelphia, Oct. 28. (INS.)—A slight rain last night ended the second longest drought in the history of the city. Prior to yesterday not a drop of rain had fallen for 18 days. The longest dry spell on record was in November, 1917, when there was no rain for 21 days.

Dr. Henrity, of Winburne, had business in Clearfield yesterday.

Market News

By W. S. COUSINS
(I. N. S. Financial Editor.)

New York, Oct. 28.—Industrial and railroad stocks displayed more strength and activity today than in any of the last three or four sessions of the stock market. Vigorous buying of the railroad stocks in the first hour, with industrial leaders joining the movement later in the day, lifted many stocks out of the narrow rut in which they have been travelling for a week or more and placed them in the highest price levels for the current movement.

The extremely favorable report on railroad traffic activities throws light also on the recent expansion in domestic business. Activity in steel common was held up awaiting the report on third quarters' earnings and dividend action at 3 o'clock, but independent steel companies were uniformly strong and active throughout the rest of the session with Penn Sea-board advancing to a new high on the movement on a very heavy turnover.

The movement in railroad stocks failed to produce any new records and advances in prices were prevented by the large offerings of stocks at fractionally higher price levels. Traders who had purchased these stocks at slightly lower levels were willing to sell them at the smallest margins of price advances, in many cases less than a point. Thus after a moderate rise in Rock Island, Missouri Pacific, St. Paul preferred, Kansas City Southern and a few other low priced stocks, buying stopped as suddenly as it had begun and prices in many stocks returned to the lower levels.

Oil stocks failed to continue the forward movement which has been in progress for about a week.

American Sugar Refining tumbled to a new low at 36 1/2 for a loss of 2 1/2 points and Cuba Can Sugar preferred lost about one point on selling due to reported over production in Cuban raws and rumors of price cutting in the trade. Sears Roebuck made a new high for the year at 114, at the head of the mercantile stocks which were generally firm.

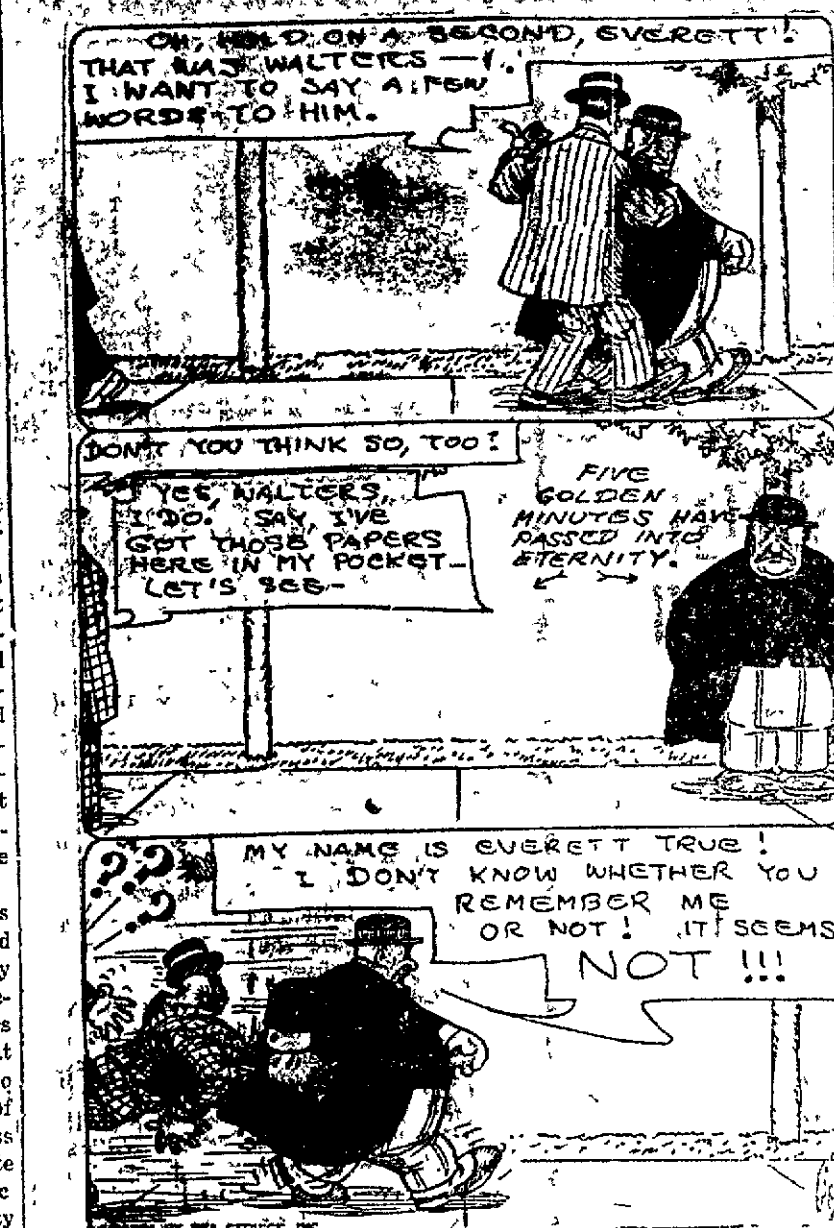

Call money opened at 2 1/2 per cent but was marked up to 3 per cent in the fourth hour.

GRAIN CLOSING

Chicago, Oct. 28 (INS).—Grains with the exception of corn eased off in the closing hours of trade today and finished generally lower.

Wheat closed 1 5/8 to 2 1/8 off; corn finished 1-2 at 7-8 higher and oats closed, 1-4 to 3-8 lower. The early advance in wheat ran into considerable hedging and liquidation which the market managed to absorb until the closing hours when buying became more limited and prices slumped. Higher cables were responsible for much of the buying.

EVERETT TRUE

Stomach Remedy A Fast Seller

Dare's Mentha Pepsin

Six Thousand Bottles Sold in One New Jersey Town Last Year. Stewart Drug Co. Declares Money Back If One Bottle Doesn't Make Any Stomach Sufferer Rejoice.

At last the way has been found to combine Pepsin with other corrective stomach agents so that it will do the most good in the shortest possible time. Why bother with slow actors when one desiccated spoonful of this splendid and pleasant liquid remedy will cause gas, bloating, heaviness, acidity, heartburn or any upset condition of the stomach to speedily vanish. And why should any man or woman suffer another hour with indigestion or any stomach misery when the remedy that acts almost instantly can be easily procured?

But there is more to say about this remarkable remedy—something that will interest thousands of despondent people. Dare's Mentha Pepsin not only quickly relieves stomach distress, but it also conquers stubborn indigestion, dyspepsia and gastritis, and puts an end to dizziness, nervousness, headache, sleeplessness and despondency which distressing troubles are nearly always caused by chronic stomach disturbances.

Dare's Mentha Pepsin is pleasant to take, has a delightfully refreshing taste and after it has put your stomach in a clean and healthy condition just notice how much better you look and feel. For besides correcting stomach disorders this supremely good remedy that Stewart Drug Co. and druggists everywhere guarantee, is a fine tonic that builds you up and makes you work with vim, eat with relish and sleep soundly.

DR. POTTER ORDERS SHADEL HELD FOR A FURTHER HEARING

Middleburg, Pa., Oct. 28. (INS).—That Ralph Shadel, 18-year-old slayer of Harvey Willow, his employer, may never see the inside of Eastern penitentiary to which he was sentenced for the crime, was indicated today when Dr. Ellen C. Potter, head of the State Welfare Department, ordered the youth held here pending an investigation of his case.

The boy, who with Mrs. Annie Willow, wife of the slain man, was convicted of second degree murder was to have been taken to the penitentiary today.

A telegram from Dr. Potter to Sheriff Runkel ordered Shadel held

ODDS AND ENDS AND THINGS

By J. D. C.

Munn Hatten, in the Philadelphia Public Ledger says:

"Airplanes go humming out of New York, bound for the West, every morning in the latest of improvements in the Nation's mail service. The Wall Street broker picks up a letter that has been rushed from San Francisco through the clouds almost over night and thinks nothing of it. The ZR-2 drifted in with a morning mist the other day, after spanning the ocean in less than four days, and the next day many persons had mail that had also made the flight."

That is the postal service of today. Contrast it with those days back in 1770, for instance, when "ye post rider" received instructions to make some trees that shall direct the best way and to fix some houses for your several stages both to bait and lodge at."

Those were days when the receipt of a letter was an event and a lucky one, more or less. For the mail was haphazard and the postman was any one who happened to be carrying your way. Letters that came by boat were delivered by one of the sailors just as shipments of merchandise were. Sometimes all the mail that was consigned to New York was dumped in one central location, and the postman, for instance, and those expected letters went there and waited for them.

It was in 1692 that England first attempted to establish a regular mail service in her colony. But it wasn't until 1710 that a regular postoffice was established in New York. Twenty-two years later it was decided that more space was needed, and the postal headquarters moved to an old house that stood on Broadway opposite Beaver Street.

It was used for many years. It was the postoffice site when the Revolution came, but in the few years that followed the postoffice was moved to many institutions that were important enough to hold the mails. Men were too busy to think of letters and too busy to think of letters and too busy to think of letters to think of communications came from the East.

President Washington took over the postoffice, he turned his attention to the postal service, and the first postoffice in New York was moved to the same old house on Broadway. It remained there until 1796 when it was moved to the corner of Broadway and Exchange Street, and William Street, where it remained in one small room. The postmaster lived in the upper part of the house with his family. He had an assistant in the task of sorting and stamping the mail that came and left. In those days all the mail from the South to New York was put in two bags each day, and these were carried from Paulus Hook to the city. The yellow-fever epidemic of 1792 drove the postoffice out of the stricken area, but it came back to a two-story building on Garden Street in 1825. Garden Street people are either not interested in rapid mail service or have the interest in the middle or far West since the inauguration of air mail service last July the local postoffice was supplied with twenty "air mail stamps". Several more than 100 of them are still in stock unused.

interesting and enjoyable talk on her personal impressions of President Coolidge and of Congressman W. I. Swoope.

Miss Franke here entertained the meeting with a greatly enjoyed song, "Keep on Hoping and you'll get there Election Morning." Miss Amy Reno accompanied her.

Mrs. A. H. Woodward then gave a fine talk on "The Duties of Citizenship." She said some citizens are born voters, some have achieved the vote and some have had the vote thrust upon them. In any case remember your vote is just as important and counts just as much as that of President Coolidge. By getting suffrage we have gained recognition not only in money matters but we have gained recognition in political matters. She visited in the home town of Chas. Bryan and gave recollections of that visit. She said "The women of the West want the women of the East to join them in defeating Bryan and electing Coolidge." Miss Larue Chorprenning, Co. chairman of the W. C. T. U., gave a delightful, "peppy" talk on why she supported Hon. W. I. Swoope, referring particularly to his excellent speech on the Child Labor amendment and on his attitude towards the temperance cause.

John H. Martin was called upon and gave some sound advice on "The Essential Duties of a Voter." He said the first essential duty was to attend the party caucus, second vote at the primary election, third be sure you are registered, fourth pay your taxes, and fifth, go early and vote. He urged that individual prejudice be sacrificed for party principles. The whole meeting was delightful and informal and enjoyable. Refreshments were served and souvenirs were given to the guests.

Mrs. Irl B. Calm and son, of Akron Ohio, are visiting Mrs. Calm's mother, Mrs. Anna Ericson, on Nichols Street.

CONSTITUTION A SAFEGUARD

Tacoma (Wash.) News Tribune: The fundamental difference between the La Follette group and the two other parties is reflected in the La Follette attack on the Constitution. The radical group proposes, in effect, that the United States abandon its present form of government with balancing powers and make Congress the final power in the government by giving it the right to override Supreme court decisions.

Has Congress gained the confidence of the people to the extent that they desire to entrust it with such power? The Constitution is really the safeguard of the people's liberties against any possible legislative or executive tyranny. It affords religious freedom; the right to own property; the right to trial by jury. Excessive bail, fines and cruel punishment are prohibited. The right of suffrage is given to women.

As General Davies says, "What kind of a government would this be if Congress had the right to pass a law telling every citizen where to go to church or taking his property away and giving it to someone?" This might happen if the La Follette plan were adopted, whereby Congress by re-enacting an offending law, could make it constitutional.

DO WE WANT EUROPEAN CONDITIONS HERE?

In his opening speech at New York, Senator La Follette said:

"The greatest inspiration of the world today is the fact that in every quarter of the globe the people are gaining control of their governments. * * * On every side we see a reawakening of the people, a rebirth of genuine democracy. It is that fact, my friends, which should give us here in America hope, determination, and supreme confidence. The tidal wave of democracy that is sweeping the world knows no national boundaries or continental limitations. It is today sweeping over the United States."

What does not mean that in the opinion of Senator La Follette Old World countries are in advance of America in promoting the welfare of their people, what does it mean? How many Americans want this country to follow Russia, Germany, France, or even Great Britain, in their recent courses? How many farmers, in spite of their present troubles, how many working men, would change places with European farmers and working men? The November elections will tell.

CASH VALUE OF EDUCATION

Evidently the "white collar jobs" don't pay so poorly after all, if the collars are combined with education. A report from the College of Business Administration of Boston University gives a set of facts about the cash value of trained minds that can be understood by anybody.

The man whose education stops short of high school goes to work at 14 and reaches his highest income, $1,200 a year, at the age of 30. At 45 or 50 his earning power begins to slacken, because manual labor depends on physical strength, and he is likely to be dependent on others at 60. His whole working period, from 14 to 60, has brought him about $45,000.

The high school graduate goes to work at 18. At 25 he passes the highest income of the untrained man. He rises steadily to his own maximum earning power at 40, and continues there for practically the rest of his life. From 18 to 60 he earns $78,000.

The college graduate starts to earn at 22, and by the time he is 28 is earning as much as the high school graduate at 40. His earning power increases from then on, rather than diminishes, because it depends on mental ability and is helped along by experience. From 22 to 60 he earns $150,000.

It is surely worth while to train the mind, from a merely pecuniary standpoint, if a boy makes $33,000 by going to high school four years, and $72,000 more by going to college four years.

"Shall the American people through this Government reassume the moral leadership of mankind?"

"Such an issue as this transcends every question of today."

"We face a world wherein the supreme material problem is that of equitable distribution of wealth. The Democrat stands for the position of that law and government policy should encourage the distribution of that wealth with all proper regard for the toil of the men who produce it; the Republican party for the doctrine that if we turn the major portion of that wealth to a competent few, they will themselves distribute it for the benefit of the many."

"The Democratic party stands for the utmost possible democracy in industry; the Republican for a glorified oligarchy."

Paleolithic Man Ambidextrous.

Films implements made by the earliest tribes of Paleolithic man, long before he had arrived at the dignity of a spear and a shield, have hand grips, some for the right and some for the left hand, about fifty-fifty, indicating that in that age man was still ambidextrous like his cousin, the ape. Also his spirited drawings of the saber-toothed tiger and other neighbors were sometimes left handed and sometimes right handed. Plato and Aristotle both advocated training in two-handedness.

AUDITOR GENERAL MUST LOOK TO THE ATTORNEY GENERAL SAYS COURT ORDER

Harrisburg, Pa., Oct. 27 (INS)—Auditor General S. S. Lewis will be required to refer all of his legal difficulties and disputes pertaining to his office to the State Department of Justice for legal advice and to follow the advice given by the latter department unless a question of unconstitutionality is raised according to a peremptory mandamus issued in Dauphin county court by Judge Fox.

The decision is in the demurrer filed by Auditor General Lewis to the alternative writ of mandamus obtained by Attorney General Woodruff's office in disputes involving State appropriations. Lewis had refused to approve requisitions against the appropriations after Attorney General Woodruff had held them to be legal.

Judge Hargest ruled today that in the State appropriation dispute between Piccirilli Brothers Company of New York, against Auditor General Lewis and State Treasurer Snyder, the administrative code permits Lewis and Snyder to approve and pay the State appropriation for the State's General Meade monument in Washington.

The Auditor General had refused to approve a requisition against the monument appropriation claiming.

Business Briefs

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 27 (INS)—"Car loadings are almost at the flood tide and business is good," Samuel Vauclain, head of the Baldwin Locomotive Works declared here today when he arrived to take part in Navy Day exercises.

The large purchases of railroad equipment in the Pittsburgh district forecast an industrial expansion, he declared. He predicted the election of Calvin Coolidge.

that the administrative code abolished the Meade Commission and left no one the authority to issue requisitions against the appropriation of the commission.

BEAUTY IN THE HOME

By FLORENCE DAVIES

Worriers who are much upset over the passing of the home are urged to find something else to worry about. Old-fashioned homes with front and back porches, two side doors and two apple trees in the back-yard to tie the clothes line to, are growing scarce. But homes are by no means vanishing, and the interest in them is growing, rather than waning.

If any city in the country, large or small, wants to get out a crowd, just let it start a Better Home show. Men and women will flock thither and discuss every phase of the home's beautiful, from lamp-shades to wall paper. Newspapers which publish the plans of small homes are flooded with requests for building information. Business firms which open ideal homes or furnish well appointed rooms are never at a loss for spectators.

Just the other day conversation at a luncheon table languished a little. Someone at the front end of the board, said something about antiques, and instantly a woman at the other end, took up the word as if it had been flashed by an electric current, and at once the talk was brisk and animated.

Ottomans, it seems, were scarcer than hen's teeth, but someone knew where they was a good old Sleepy Hollow Chair. And the odd thing about it is that the guests weren't all newly-weds who were just furnishing their homes, either. Some of them weren't even married, and some had been married and settled in homes for years, but every woman there spoke the home language.

We smile a little tolerantly at the time our grandmothers wasted patching silk quilts and making hooked rugs. But the joke is on us, for we are paying hundreds of dollars for the rugs today.

Cutting up silk and sewing it together again with fancy stitches was only a little foolish because the result was seldom beautiful. The "crazy" quilt was too often, alas, just what the beautiful home, remains.

But let no one imagine that the plans of small homes are flooded with requests for building information. Business firms which open ideal homes or furnish well appointed rooms are never at a loss for spectators.

SEAL SALE CONFERENCE

Mrs. Gilbert, Mrs. Jean Fridy and Mrs. Carrie Buchanan were the representatives from Clearfield County Society at the annual Seal Sale Conference held at the Penn Alto Hotel, Altoona, last month, under the auspices of the National Tuberculosis Association. New ideas and methods were presented and discussed for making the 1924 Christmas Seal Sale the biggest ever. Let us all get set for this big event in our respective towns.

THE JOLLY JESTER ON THE JOB

Perhaps the largest undertaking of our Society during the year is the education of the children in health habits and hygienic living was brought to a close on Saturday, October eleven with two capacity houses at the DeLuga Theatre, Clearfield. "The Jolly Jester" had been giving two or more performances at the several towns mentioned before every day of the preceding week, and some idea of the number reached can be got when we say that 14,575 children attended. The influence and impressions made by this health clown can scarcely be exaggerated and was unquestionably the effort and the expenditure of the Society. Starting at Coalbrook, Monday morning, where the Chairman, Mrs. Bend, had everything ready, 1200 children crowded into the theatre. At Irwina in the afternoon about 500 under the direction of Mrs. Ira Plank enjoyed the entertainment. Tuesday morning, Dr. and Mrs. Howles had everything ready at Malady. Curwensville and vicinity. Wednesday shows which Miss Marjorie Hile had charge of, and which were attended by about 2500. Wednesday afternoon, Woodland was the scene, where the stage had been prepared by Dr. and Mrs. Savory and where the funny clown said or did. Mrs. Miller arranged for the meeting and crowded the theatre, and even though there was short notice, 1000 or more children were present. Mrs. Morgan Hayes, with Mrs. Gould and Mrs. Winkler brought the banner crowd to Malady, where almost 2200 children and mothers were in some manner gathered into the theatre for the single performance. Mrs. Jean Fridy had the children assembled for Thursday afternoon, and Mrs. Somerville for Friday. An extra show was put on at Glades Flat through Miss Anna B. B. Maxwell made arrangements and Prof. Switzer marshaled the forces on Friday.

We can not too heartily thank these good workers in these towns for their wonderful assistance, for it was a small job to gather and watch a number of children and keep them out of harm's way. The theatre owners and managers who so generously gave their buildings, as well as the Board of the Methodist Church at Woodland. All we can say in addition is that you doubt at all that the jester's laugh reached home, and the parent of any child who attended. The committee's only regret is that we could not have the Jolly Jester for a longer time so that every section of our county could see and hear the health sermon. Two things prevented it, viz: he could not remain a longer time, and our finances. With the next Christmas Sale approaching so fast it is our hope that it will be a record breaker and that we will be able to play return engagements and cover the several sections that we could not possibly reach in the one week we had for so doing.

QUARTERLY MEETING

A regular quarterly meeting of the Clearfield County Tuberculosis Society will be held at Jordan's Hotel, Clearfield, on Thursday, October Thirtieth at 1 P. M. This meeting will be devoted chiefly to Seal Sale business and every member is urged to be on hand.

AT THE COUNTY FAIR

The booth conducted by our Society at the Clearfield County Fair during the week of September twenty-third was visited and utilized by hundreds of the visitors and made a greater hit than any previous year. Miss Gracey, the State Clinic nurse, co-operated most earnestly in the display and made the booth a real temporary health center not only for children but also for the grown-ups who came to be weighed and measured in large numbers. It is rather significant that the adults are really becoming educated in the health problems and their own health. They hear the children relate the lessons taught and see what results are obtained in them. They are reading almost daily of health examinations and the importance of early detection of a break in this or that organ. That is the reason they come in so much larger numbers to the places such as our booth at the Fair where neglect of their physical welfare is denounced and maintenance of sound bodies is preached. Mrs. H. A. Blair assisted in the work. The Fair Association liberally donated the space in the Exhibition Building.

"MAN'S HUMANITY TO MAN"

Ladies and Gentlemen: It is my first visit to this town honored annual outing at Fruit Hill which from what I have seen today is a very reasonable cause for bringing together such a large number of people. You all come and have come to this affair year after year because you feel that you are greatly benefited by so doing in a number of ways, physically through the good food that is provided, mentally through the instructive talks that you hear, spiritually by the pleasant social intercourse and rubbing shoulders with your fellowmen.

May I turn your attention just for a few minutes to a subject in which all of us are vitally interested either consciously or unconsciously. I use the word "vitally" advisedly, for it has to do with the lives and living of each and every one. No public appropriations or private donations are in my opinion better invested than those directed along this line of endeavor, and yet it has only been for about the last 25 years that national, state, or municipal departments have been functioning in the great matter of health among their constituents. There is no better proof of man's humanity to man or that we are today at a higher social level than the progressive organized efforts for preserving the lives and bettering the lives of our fellowmen.

The birth of the Department of Health in our great Keystone state took place in the year 1855. Massachusetts, the first state in the Union to have a department or board of health began 16 years previously. These early health boards were largely statistical and advisory, having neither the power nor the means to carry on work as they do today. Many here can recall with what resistance the early health officers met when they first began enforcing quarantine regulations to control and stamp out contagious diseases. Personal liberty was being encroached upon in the eyes of many at that time as it has been since the passage of the 13th amendment. How many of us today antagonize the enforcement of health statutes? We have learned our lesson by experience, and let us hope that the same attitude may soon be taken by those who today strive to nullify the dry enforcement laws.

One of the earliest diseases at which the Health Departments and volunteer agencies directed attention, was tuberculosis, then the chief cause of death in the United States. That was the time it was called the great White Plague, and today it has been put down to the third place among the causes of death in this country. The National Tuberculosis Association was organized in 1904. The Pennsylvania Tuberculosis Society is an integral part of the former, and the Clearfield County Tuberculosis Society is a unit of the State organization. These have all come into being to assist in routing the old enemy T. B. with their members all volunteer workers. They cooperate wherever possible with the state, and local health boards. I think it can be justly claimed by the small army of tuberculosis fighters throughout the United States that the most potent evidence of results they have accomplished in their organized fight is the lowering of the death rate. This has consistently diminished since 1920 when the first world wide records were compiled. At that time the various forms of tuberculosis caused 201 deaths in every 100,000 in the United States. In 1923 this had been reduced below 90 per 100,000, or more than cut in half. Think of it, 104 people living in 1923 in every 100,000 who 22 years ago would have died of some form of tuberculosis. Are not such results worth while? What values in dollars and cents can measure the salvaging of these lives, and is not the investment made by your state and the money you spend for the little seals at Christmas time put to a far better use than you realize? I mention the little Christmas seals because the income derived from this source is the means of keeping up the work of the volunteer work against T. B. as carried out by the Pennsylvania Society and your county organization. Aren't the dimes, quarters and dollars you pay for these little stickers that you put on your gifts and mail providing the greatest gift of all, viz: That of life to some poor individual already suffering or in preventing others from acquiring a disease that would cost them their lives. Our life saving work in Pennsylvania has shown more marked results than in the United States at large, for we have reduced the death rate in our state below the average for the whole country, it being only 86 per 100,000, and we of the Clearfield County Tuberculosis Society are proud to have the State Statistician inform us that the rate for our county alone is only 52 per 100,000. I know that many of you say to yourselves that this work must be going on somewhere remote from Fruit Hill, as you know of none of it being done nor of any money being spent in this section. Let me say that there is not a section of Clearfield County that is not covered by our society workers and also by the State Department of Health. Every town about here has a committee who take care of the work, most often I am sorry to say, by the good women. Cases are looked up, homes visited, patients taken to the dispensary for

Chicago, Oct. 28. (INS.)—No respite from the life of monotony behind the gray stone walls of Joliet state penitentiary will come to Richard A. Loeb through the death of his father, Albert H. Loeb.

This became known today when Jacob M. Loeb, venerable uncle of the youthful slayer of Robert Franks, brought the news of the death to Richard in the solitude of the guard room at Joliet.

After advising Richard, Jacob Loeb told Warden Whitman that no request that the boy be permitted to attend the funeral services would be made.

examination and to be listed for the state sanatoria at Mt. Alto, Hamburg, and Cresson. Most of our cases go to Cresson on account of its proximity. Clothing and food often have to be provided in emergencies where the father or wage earner has to be taken away for treatment. When patients are taken to Cresson we frequently have to provide transportation to and from there, although the County Commissioners who serve as Poor Board in our county take care of a large number of such contingencies. Our committee women have been weighing and measuring the school children in many parts of the county, and many larger schools have been provided with scales for this purpose. Underweight and under-nourished children are discovered in this way and visits to the homes where instructions and care are given to bring them up to normal, remembering the old adage, of a sound body being necessary for a sound mind and right thinking. Milk is frequently provided over a period for this type of case. This is preventive work as it has long been shown that the tuberculosis germ finds a ready harbor and develops much faster where there is poor resistance due to undernourishment and improper feeding. Health plays are put on in the schools and the Modern Health Crusade, a systematic method of education in health habits and hygiene, is introduced wherever practicable with the teachers. These are some of the ways and means of accomplishing the results that have been attained. Meanwhile the National Tuberculosis Association constantly has a corps of workers investigating further in the effort to find a cure as well as means of immunizing the healthy against this dread disease. Whenever some new cure is heralded they are the first to get it and make thorough tests, etc., to find out if it is at last what has been hoped for for years. We are sorry that up to this time, in spite of whatever claims have been made, no cure or preventive of tuberculosis in the way of serums, antitoxins, or medicines has been found.

(Delivered at annual outing of the Fruit Hill Presbyterian Church, Clearfield County, Pa., August, 1924, attended by about 4500, by J. Paul Frantz, M. D.)

Curwensville's Own Column

Mr. and Mrs. William Emerick, of DuBois, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Forcey, North Pine street.

A covey of Halloween dances are on the boards to come off in Curwensville next Friday evening. One in Red Men's rooms, a masquerade and another in the Opera House, besides several hops in private dwellings.

An effort is being put forth to hold a Mummer's parade in this place on Halloween. The one booked to be held last year proved a fizzle, although several hundred folks walked the streets clothed in all sorts of costumes.

The finishing work on the new concrete Anderson creek bridge will be completed this week. A coating of tar and gravel has been laid on the bridge floor and the side walls trimming and floated up to make their appearance more pleasing to the eye. The work is being done under the supervision of borough Inspector Jas. C. Wright and that fact alone is a guarantee that the work will be done according to the plan and specifications.

The B. R. & P. railroad Co., have a crew of men and a steam shovel at work above the crossing on south side of Anderson creek, taking off a point of a curve in the upper bank, making the clearance from road to crossing more plainly by those who are compelled to still use the Grampian road.

A revival meeting will be commenced in the Lutheran church at Bloomington soon under the direction of Rev. L. E. Fineout, pastor of the Baptist church here, and Rev. H. E. Rundell of Endicott, N. Y. Rev. Rundell has been holding meetings at Sykesville lately and has baptised more than half a hundred persons as the result of his work.

An air plane did a good business in this vicinity Sunday by carrying passengers through the air for five minute journey. The rate came rather high, $5 for three minutes in the air, but there were a lot of people who wanted the experience and curiosity of a ride amid the clouds in an air ship. The parties and ship came from Marietta, Ohio, and it is said had the machine for sale.

Mr. and Mrs. William Post have arrived home from their trip to Ontario, having been called thence by the death of a relative.

The big building built by the organization of Yellow Dogs out at the Park grounds is now completed, the large verandas being finished up last week. The structure will now evidently be turned over to the borough authorities, as that was the intention of the promoters in the first instance. Now what organization will be next in line to make a permanent improvement over at the river side?

Low Spencer came dangled close to running ye scribe down with his automobile yesterday afternoon. Had he done so, and we found it out it would have gone hard with him.

FORMER WOODLAND WOMAN DIES AT DUBOIS

Mrs. Alice Nale of Clear Run, a suburb of DuBois, who before her marriage to John Nale was the wife of Ellsworth Albert of Woodland, suffered a stroke Monday evening of last week from the effects of which she died last evening. Mrs. Nale returned from a lengthy trip to the west last Monday evening during which time she visited her son, Elaine in Oregon and her daughter, Mrs. Paul Loris, of Ashland, Ohio. Within 15 minutes after she came into the house she was stricken and her condition remained critical until death ensued last evening. Her maiden name was Alice Lansberry of Bradford township and she was a sister of Rish, Ralph and Richard Lansberry, well known here. Funeral services will be held at the Clear Run home on Thursday at 2 o'clock.

Spruce Gum.
Spruce gum is collected by cutting the natural lumps of gum from the tree, usually by means of a small hatchet. It can be gathered at any time of the year, but the fall and winter are usually preferred, more because of the climatic conditions than because of the availability of the gum at this time of the year. Ordinarily the gum is assorted into two classes, one of which is clear and entirely free from bark. The small amount of the material which cannot be entirely separated from bark is sometimes sold as a low grade and is separated from the bark and dirt by melting and straining.

Daily Thought

True fortitude I take to be the quiet possession of a man's self, and an undisturbed doing his duty, whatever evil befalls him or danger lies in his way.—Locke.

Rome is planning a building 50 stories high, the top of which would be the time for Roman candle shooting.

German Reichstag has been dissolved. One of those things last as long as a lump of sugar in hot coffee.

Mexico has elected a president, but not without a shot.

Crossword puzzles are popular now, perhaps because you don't have to speak Chinese to fool with them.

We object to running around with a long haired girl because all she can say is "Must I bob it?"

Bad news from Paris: George Lascelles, author, is asking the women to dress sensibly. If they do, they will look foolish.

Chicago woman says he panned her ring to buy booze. Even so, we refuse to say it was a run ring.

New York woman of 72 passed a bad check. Sometimes wisdom comes with age, and sometimes age comes alone.

They claim a Wall Street man who stole a million lost it, but it isn't the custom.

Chicago judge rules a man can't hug a girl while driving an auto; which is all right, but suppose the girl can't drive?

The world changes. When a girl quarrels with her lover these days she gets drunk instead of crying.

Murphy Probably Understood.
The contractor had been to confession and told the priest that he was very sorry for the habit he had of cursing men whenever anything went wrong, so the priest advised him, the next time he was tempted, to say "God bless you!"—and he promised that he would. A few days later, however, he found one of his men loafing on the job and yelled to him: "Murphy, ye omdhann, phat's the matter wid ye? Git in there, pick up that crowbar, God bless ye!"—but—but ye know phat Oi mane.—Exchange.

FREDERICK TARRING PARTY IS SENTENCED; MEN GET TWO YEARS, WOMAN NINE MONTHS

Fredrick, Md., Oct. 27. (INS)—Jury sentences were meted out here today to one woman and 11 men for their part in the tarring and feathering of pretty Dorothy Grandon, 20, along the Interstate road last July.

Mrs. L. Shanks, who took a part in the party in the tarring party because Dorothy "V. and let her hair down, received two sentences of nine months each for aiding and abetting the mob.

The two terms will run concurrently, however so Mrs. Shanks will serve only nine months in the county jail.

Mrs. Shanks turned "state's evidence" at the jury trials which were given members of the mob, and incurred the enmity of her co-rioters. She said she was "sorry for the girl."

Harry Leatherman, one of the prime movers in the tarring mob, received a sentence of two years in the Maryland House of Correction for rioting and tarring and feathering.

Arthur Rice, a teacher in the Sunday School, received the same sentence.

Pice and Leatherman were said at the trial to have been the ring leaders of the mob.

Those who were given one year in the Maryland House of Correction were Alvin Rice, Calvin Shanks, John Langdon, Roma Shanks, Grayson Dobb, Vernon Summers, William Hought, Irving Rice and Walter Shanks.

The sentences were pronounced before a packed court room by Judge Hammond Under, with Associate Judge Robert Peters sitting beside him.

Before the court pronounced the sentences attorney Samuel E. Lewis, representing Mrs. Shanks, asked the court for mercy for her, pointing out that she had acted the part of an aggrieved wife.

"I have taken all these things into consideration," replied Judge Under. "Never in my fifteen years on the bench have I ever faced such a conflict between duty and sympathy. But under the compulsion of a clear sense of duty, sentence has to be imposed by the court."

The sentences were received in silence by the crowded court room. The defendants made no demonstration, nor did the spectators, nearly all of whom were related to some of those convicted. The sentences, however, came as a shock to the staid Dunkard community of Myersville where the defendants live.

Thief Shows Originality.
Thieves are not common in Alaska, but when one does appear he generally exhibits an originality of conduct difficult for less accomplished folks to comprehend. As an instance of this characteristic a thief broke into a store at Douglas recently and stole all the 1916 tags provided for licensed dogs, thus subjecting every canine in town to the danger of being taken up by the dog catcher.

The Real Objection.
Your objection to special privilege probably is based on the fact that you are not permitted to enjoy it.—Tospe Capital.

A Good Nurse.
"A good nurse," said Florence Nightingale, the heroine of the Crimea, "should understand every change in a patient's face, and every change of attitude and voice. She ought to study these things until she feels sure that no one else understands them half as well. A really good nurse must be of the highest class of character and should be the Seamen on the Mount in herself."

Position of Advantage.
Barnes (to Shedd, who has just finished a long letter)—"Funny that you should write long letters to your wife when you have so little to say to her when she is present." Shedd—"Not at all. When I am writing I have the floor."—Boston Transcript

BAD BREATH

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Get at the Cause and Remove It

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work.

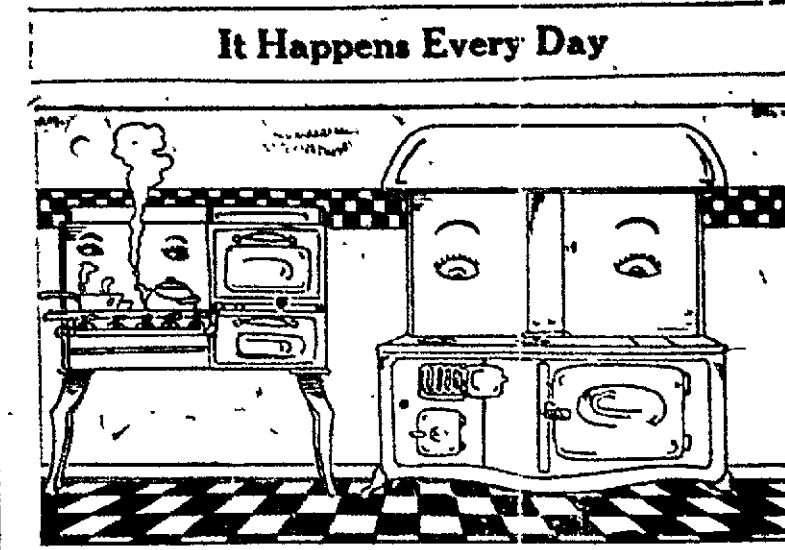

People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system. They do that which dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects.

All the benefits of nasty, sickening, gripping, catarrhes are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without gripping, pain or any disagreeable effects.

Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint, with the attendant bad breath.

Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color. Take one or two every night for a week and note the effect. 15c and 50c.

Thoughts of A Cold Kitchen Range—

"They certainly don't believe in keeping the home fires burning in this kitchen—except in that tricky-looking gas range they put in. I haven't had so much as a match lit inside me for four months.

"Times certainly have changed around here—I used to be the big center of interest. Mrs. Allen used to say I was the 'cutest stove she ever saw' when she was first married.

"Many a biscuit I used to harden for her in those days—her cakes wouldn't rise and her coffee wouldn't settle, and she used to spill things all over me—but we were good friends, just the same.

"But since she got that maid and the gas range—I've been as cold as an Esquimaux's sleeping porch. What I need is warmth.

"Mrs. Allen is opening my oven door and telling some lady what a good cooker I am. What's the idea, I wonder?

"Well, what d'ye think of that? This lady said she thought I must be a pretty good stove from the description of me in Mrs. Allen's ad in the classified section of the Progress, and she's bought me!

"I might have known that!"

SQUIRE ROACH IS STILL CLEANING UP MOONSHINERS

'Squire Roach, the Woodward township dry raider, extended his activities down as far as Ocoee and across the County border to just inside the five hundred yard limit in Centre County and had the hides of four moonshiners ready to tack upon his official coal shed.

The raiding 'Squire was accompanied by Sheriff T. J. Lowell, Deputy Sheriff Hummelbaugh, State Troopers Parker and Kelly, Chief of Police Carson, of Ocoee, and Constable Peterson, of Brisban.

Search warrants had been provided for four places and "pay dirt" was struck at each place visited.

The home of Walter Urick was first visited. Here the raiders discovered a still, 50 gallons of mash, 3 1/2 gallons of whiskey and 29 bottles of beer.

John Crowhoski's place yielded one still, 5 gallons of wine and 3 gallons of whiskey.

Mrs. Edwin Cravish was next visited and produced 60 gallons of mash, one coil for a still, one half gallon of whiskey.

Frank Younick was found in possession of 150 gallons of mash, a 20 gallon still and 5 gallons of whiskey.

Mike Sincovich, found at one of the places, put up a battle and was taken into custody charged with resisting arrest.

Bail to the amount of $2500 each was asked of the alleged moonshiners, and all were able to dig it up but Crowhoski and he is now in jail.

COACH HAUGHTON OF COLUMBIA IS DEAD OF HEART ATTACK

New York, Oct. 28. (INS).—Percy Haughton, wonder center of the team, dead from an attack of heart disease as he stood on the brink of his greatest achievement, today was mourned by his followers at Columbia University and by his friends on every rival campus throughout the East.

The find of haughtiness, from an illness which struck as he was putting on his school top just before going to the field where he had moulded the first representative football team Columbia has had in ten years. His team came less than 48 hours after Blue and White's decisive victory over Williams, a victory which convinced football followers that he had transplanted to Columbia the Haughton system made famous at Harvard in his nine years as head coach there.

It was his second season as head coach at Columbia and the improved play of the Blue and White eleven because that the Haughton "will" and systematic discipline in producing something Columbia had never known in years—a winning team.

Haughton was 49 years old. His career in football, a football and basketball star at Harvard as a member of the class of 1899, he returned to his alma mater in 1909. In nine years, brought the Crimson victories, two tier and two, in the all-important games. Yale, before Haughton, Harvard, but three victories to Columbia. The Haughton system won and tied 5.

Announcement had been made regarding the Columbia game Saturday, which may be the last. It was not known whether a team would complete its schedule.

PLAN LEAGUE OF GOLFERS

New York, Oct. 28. (INS).—A national league of golfers to compare with professional leagues in other sports, was in the process of formation here today under the guidance of Walter Hagen, British open champion and champion of American professionals.

Top leading professionals, according to Hagen's plans, for a league in Florida, will play a series of matches in the southern states during January and February and the winners will meet Abe Mitchell and George Duncan, British stars, coming to the United States for an exhibition tour.

NAVY GETS BROADSIDE

Annapolis, Oct. 28. (INS).—On the eve of their important contest with Penn State next Saturday, the navy's football hopes, already badly shattered by the loss of three games out of four starts, received almost a crushing blow today with the disqualification of eight players for one month because of poor scholarship.

Chances of the eight for starting in the army game, Nov. 21, were said to be also seriously periled.

These disqualified were: Albin Shapely, quarterback; Royce Lipson, left half; Gas Ben's, left guard; Bill Ochler, center; Hubert Jones, quarterback; Meloney, full back and Horner, a lineman.

Young Stribling in School

Yes, the wonder fighter of Georgia has returned to the classroom in Atlanta, Ga., but his mind is still on the ring, and as he thumbs the dull pages of learning, visions of a triumphant moment lift before his eyes—a moment which will show him standing over the beaten, crushed form of a fallen champion. Young Stribling is taking an academic course and intends to enter college. They say he's a fine student.

POPULAR COUPLE WED

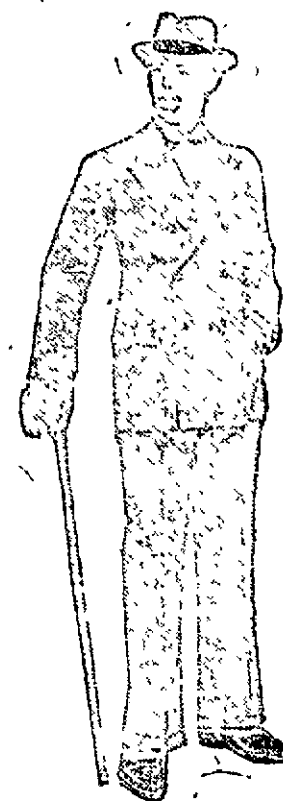

A wedding of much interest to Clearfield people by reason of the wide acquaintance and popularity of the bride and groom was celebrated in the Presbyterian Church at eight o'clock this morning. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. B. Lee, pastor of the church, and the bride and groom were, Byron L. Goshart, of Pittsburgh, and Miss Nellie H. Dabson, daughter of Mrs. Rachel Dabson of East End. Dr. Dabson is of the beautiful Von Dyke line, service of the Presbyterian Church. The attendants were John Goshart and Miss Arlene Henry and the ceremony was witnessed by many of the intimate families.

The bride was most becomingly gowned in a traveling suit of blue velvet, trimmed with ivory, and with her hair styled in a modern fashion. She was accompanied by her bridesmaid, Miss Arlene Henry, who wore a gown of blue and white. The ceremony was held at eight o'clock and the bride and groom were married by Rev. J. B. Lee.

field's most popular young people. Both are graduates of Clearfield High School, class of 1917. Following her graduation, the bride attended Indiana Normal and at the conclusion of her course there was enrolled as one of the teachers in the Clearfield schools, which position she filled most acceptably. Tracing Arabian Numerals Arabian numerals were introduced into Spain about the close of the Tenth century by the Moors or Arabs, who got them as early as the Sixteenth century from the Hindus. Before that time, little is known about them. They did not come into general use in Europe until the Sixteenth century.

NEVER AGAIN

YOUR forefather's bathtub was the creek. He mirrored his face in a basin of water and made his fire with a flint. His Ford was a horse's shanks, his electric light a wick in tallow, his telephone a shrill shouting through his hands. He hewed for his furniture, spun for his cloths, tilled, sewed, reaped, ground, mixed, baked for his bread. When he died, not a newspaper printed the news, and his possessions were too few for a will.

You'll never have to go back to his old discomforts. Not while printed pages are available. News and advertising have carried far the story of new inventions. Every day more are added, more things for use, for comfort, for enjoyment.

CHURCHES

SEVENTY-FIVE REGISTERED AT THE STANDARD TRAINING SCHOOL IN THE TRINITY M. E. CHURCH

The Training School for Sunday School workers opened formally in Trinity M. E. church last night.

75 persons registered. The students are all leaders in their local schools. At least 25 more are expected to register tonight.

Dr. H. L. Jacobs delivered a thrilling chapel address upon the theme "And he Took a Towel." He referred to the Service Activities of Christ while here on earth.

Text Books "Leaders of Youth" and "How to Teach Religion" arrived this morning and can be secured to-day at Trinity M. E. parsonage. Primary Methods and Worker and H. Bible will be on hand tonight and can be secured at the church.

The school sessions begin at 7:15 p. m. tonight at 8:05 there will be a brief service to be followed with a study period and another class session.

Dean Kobach announced that the Methodist pastors of Clearfield had decided to conduct a Union Prayer Service on Wednesday evening in connection with the Training school. The service will begin at 8:10 o'clock and will be the chapel service of the Training school.

Dr. E. A. Pyles, District Supt. Wilkes-Barre, Pa., will deliver the address, admission to all sessions on Wednesday evening will be free. All are cordially invited to attend and to remain for the last class session.

LUTHERAN CHURCH NOTES

The last Sunday of the month the Sunday school keeping up a splendid record of attendance throughout the month. There were a number of new scholars. All are anxiously looking forward to Double-Up Day or 24 and many have already registered their activities. Let's go over the top.

A morning hour of worship a friend of the congregation. Dr. Johnson of Gary, Ind., delivered a message on "Leaves of Grass." Dr. Johnson is a native of Clearfield. He brought to the hands of the congregation a new leaf. As the leaves of the tree are the leaves of the mission so the leaves of the tree are the leaves of the mission. Many of the leaves were used, but more than the influence of the leaves in the city where the leaves are now.

TRINITY CHURCH ITEMS

Bible School maintained its record Sunday of exceeding the year 1923 in both attendance and offerings. There was exceptional interest in all the periods of the session. The lesson held direct attention of the classes. Strangers and visitors were welcomed.

For the morning worship special music was prepared, which all enjoyed. From Psalm 84:8, "O Lord God of Hosts, hear my prayer, give ear, O God of Jacob." The subject of "Prayer" was evolved, stressing not the nature or any philosophy of prayer, but the facts that are known, such as that men do pray, sometimes as beggars and abject cowards; occasionally as petitioners and ambitious workers. That there is power in prayer for any spiritual grace was amplified with abundant illustrations. To whom shall men pray? Not only to a God of power as the Lord of Hosts, having countless forces at command or the ruler of vast legions or personalities like cherubim, seraphim, angels, and principalities and powers, but more as the God who relates himself to men, the God of Jacob, the God that transforms suppliants into princes of God. To such a God men must pray for themselves and others.

In the evening from Ephesians 2:10, the pastor took a survey, under Paul's analysis, of the condition of men prior to the effectual working of divine grace, and then studied them, quickened, raised up, and made to sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus, that in the ages to come (1924 A. D.) he might show (to the people of Clearfield) the exceeding riches of His grace in His kindness toward us through Christ Jesus.

The duet by Mr. Thorn and Miss Smith, with chorus taking the refrain was a helpful selection. This week's events. Trustees meet, Wednesday, 8:40. Every night of the month the Training School, which was organized yesterday afternoon and had its first session in Trinity church, will begin at 7:15, first class, 1000 work; the assembly starts at 8:10; class is resumed at 8:30. Rev. W. L. Armstrong will be at Trinity church every evening for registration of students. The assembly is open to the public, apart from registration. On Wednesday night Dr. E. A. Pyles will have charge of the assembly period.

Take Inventory of Self. Let every man study himself carefully and see if there is any discord, discontent and disgust in his character. If so let him begin the fight of his life to eradicate it. If this is not done he will be a miserable failure, a farmer and an object of pity for his neighbors.—Farm Life.

CHRISTIANS MAY BE SOLDIERS, DECISION OF THE LUTHERANS

Chicago, Oct. 27 (INS)—Christians may be soldiers.

The Lutheran Church of America took this stand today in a resolution defending "just" wars, which was adopted after a stormy debate in which the pacifist element of the Church was defeated.

The action of the Church, putting it definitely on record as opposed to the outlawing of war for Christians, was taken at the Fourth Biennial Convention of the United Lutheran Church in America, in session here.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH NOTES

The services on the Sabbath Day were of rich blessing and power. At the morning hour of worship it was our privilege to have with us again Miss Ellen Fryer who accompanied Miss Franke in the vocal solo "O Lord Most Holy," with Mrs. Bay, the organist. It was wonderfully well rendered and appreciated by all who heard. The message of the morning was on the theme, Life a Tale, comparing the individual life to a story, with its many chapters some good and some bad, emphasizing at the end that the greatest life must have in its chapters the model life of Him who is our Saviour. The evening was the last in the series "Building for Life." "The Church." For the past six week the series has been growing, adding to the great building those things which are most essential, beginning with the School, Work, Play, Friends, Home and lastly the Church. A series which could not help but give one a better understanding of the best way to build, in order that the life might be a well rounded life of love and service for Him.

Wednesday evening the mid-week prayer service invites every one to join in the hour of prayer and praise.

The Westminster Guild will sew on Wednesday evening in place of Thursday this week.

New Premier

Dr. W. W. Yen is China's new war-time premier. His appointment, held up by political bickering, was rushed through after civil strife began to assume serious proportions. He formerly was minister of agriculture and commerce. Dr. Yen is a graduate of the University of Virginia.

Mexican Rainfall

The low rainfall of the extreme north of Mexico of two to three inches on the border of Arizona, and the excessive fall, reaching 156 inches, at the Isthmus of Tehuantepec, with the high rate for Monterey and the moderate fall for the capital, show the remarkable for the hygroscopic conditions due to topography. The minimum rainfall is only exceeded in very few regions of the globe.

JORDAN'S

Foolish Husband Now Has Something Real To Make Him Trouble

Wooster, Ohio, Oct. 27 (INS).—A picture of stoic calm, Mrs. Blanche Tobias, 21, appeared before Mayor M. R. Limb today for arraignment on the charge of murdering her baby son.

"How do you plead, guilty or—"
"Yes, I'm guilty," she replied before the Mayor could complete the formal question. These were the only words she spoke at the hearing. She was remanded to jail to await Grand Jury action.

Her husband, notified yesterday of the child's death went to the county infirmary last night for the body. He took it to Smithville, near here, where interment was made today. An older child, Elsie, aged 2 years and six months, was placed in the children's home today.

Returning from her arraignment, to jail, Mrs. Tobias, calmly repeated her admissions that she had killed her baby boy, because it wouldn't have a fair chance.

"My husband wouldn't believe the child was his," she said, her calm never breaking for a moment. "I thought it was better dead. Yes, I killed it and I'm not sorry."

"The law can do what it will, the baby's safe from a hard life, where people would sneer at him because my husband said he wasn't his father."

Prosecutor C. O. Fritz planned to ask an early indictment of Mrs. Tobias, who has been left alone in her trouble. Neither her husband nor other relatives have yet visited her since her incarceration.

"The woman, alone in the county jail talks only when spoken to and then answers questions with the fewest possible words. Attorneys have not yet been employed to defend her—the woman who killed her baby 'because it couldn't have a fair chance.'"

EDWARD BELL, PROMINENT IN DIPLOMATIC SERVICE, DIES

London, Oct. 23 (INS).—Edward Bell of New York, counselor of the American embassy at Peking, died today of heart disease, according to a dispatch to the London Express.

Bell had been in the diplomatic service 15 years serving in Egypt, Persia, Cuba and Tokio before going to Peking. He was 42 years old. He was one of the secretaries of the American delegation at the disarmament conference in Washington and American Observer at the China-Japanese conference on the Shantung question.

Daily Thought.

Little do men perceive what solitude is and how far it extends; for a crowd is not company, and faces are but a gallery of pictures and talk but a tinkling cymbal where there is no love.—Bacon.

—to have a good APPETITE!

"Yes! thank you."

A GOOD appetite means a cheerful disposition.

You may have a good appetite if the blood that goes constantly to your vital organs is pure. S.S.S. purifies the blood—a good appetite follows and you will have a clear complexion and will be strong, cheerful and healthy.

Don't go on feeling up one day and down the next—hardly sick but never well—losing "pep," punch and ambition. Hoarse eaters are the red-blooded men and women. Enjoy your food! Get back your strength and energy! Reclaim your life before it is too late! People in a physically run-down condition are an easy prey to disease.

S.S.S. is what is needed. Your blood needs purifying. Your blood cells supply the energy which keeps your body well and fit. S.S.S. sits Nature in supplying new red-blood cells—the spark that renews your system. Carefully selected, scientifically proportioned and prepared herbs and barks make up S.S.S.—the great blood purifier which gives Nature a helping hand.

Get back the lost appetite, the missing vitality, the keen, sparkling eyes, the lack of determination. S.S.S. will give you more energy, vitality and vigor and a more up and going appearance.

S.S.S. is sold at all good drug stores in 10¢, 25¢ and 50¢ sizes. The larger size is more economical.

It makes You Feel Better Yourself Again.
